Dana, Well can you believe it were done - Well almost 4 more days? Dana, thanx for being a great friend - and listening to me complain about Choir. I never did know what was going on? I bet ya never knew that ..... I guess we go back along way to the boat slips how 'bout when we got hi! over in Eau Claire - yeh I thought you'd forgot - I'm glad I got to be a Jackson too... It was fun - I'll never forget how mad you guys were at me for not coming to practice! They your a great friend and don't forget it - I bet you don't remember this, but in 7th grade you got mad at me because in phy. ed both of us wanted to be quarterback and we got into a fight - The good ol' days - Well thanx for everything, I mean it - Take Care - Stay in Touch

Love - Lura (' ')

A black and white photograph of three young men, likely students of Menomonie Senior High School, looking upwards with expressions of anticipation or surprise. They are wearing dark varsity jackets with white lettering. The man on the left has a large 'M' on his jacket. The man in the center is partially obscured. The man on the right is wearing a baseball cap with a '76ers' logo and a jacket with '88' and 'LAND' visible. They are all leaning on a wooden railing.

New Dimensions

A goal of the creators of this volume of THE MENOMIN was to produce a yearbook that demonstrated some "New Dimensions" of Menomonie Senior High. They wanted to show all the students, in the many activities that the school provided during this year. By enlarging the photography staff, they were able to capture students in the center of the action of being themselves. This volume shows the successes, the happiness, and some of the sorrow of our lives here at MHS. The "New Dimension" we hope shows that as a school we pull together in whatever we undertake. From the first day of school to the last, the staff hopes this book will provide memories for years to come. We were all there, together! Let's remember 1986-87.

A grinning Nate Riordan wonders if that was the bell already? The cheerleaders carry on diligently whether the gym is full of spectators or not. Morning classes find Janet Saatkamp, Pam Willow and Kerri Langland getting ready to focus on another day.

Pride In The Arts!

The performing arts are important to every student at MHS because of the pride they develop in the participants. Whether taking part in a choir concert at Christmas, marching in the band for Homecoming, or displaying art work in the library. MHS students get recognition. Choir this year has a full-time Miss Peterson so all those students inclined toward musical careers and love of music will be there singing. In Band those students who love music have the opportunity to pursue it through individual music events or join Jazz Band under the fine direction of Mr. Borgaro. In art classes the students at MHS found the enthusiastic Mr. Norton aiden them in their pursuit of art whether it be two dimensional or three, photography or ceramics. Heidi Utech, a graduate of MHS donated an original painting to the school so it now graces the second floor corridor above the office. Everywhere one looks in the school and community the arts of MHS are alive and well showing the pride of our student body in a job well done.

Time For Tomfohr

The English department worked through a considerable change for 1986-87. Teachers taught courses they hadn't taught for years, providing a learning experience for everyone—especially teachers. In spite of the new preparations, Menomonie students rose to the challenge of the occasion, made the best of it, and most even received a passing grade.

Mrs. Tomfohr joined the English staff and assumed the duties vacated by Ms. Hile relative to Theater and Drama. Mr. Hendrickson and Mrs. Erickson both decided to teach part-time, so students found new faces in classes traditionally taught by specific individuals.

The pursuit of English had its usual ups and downs, and writing continued to be a favorite part of this quest. The Senior Comp. students enjoyed their major papers, the juniors awaited the ever unfolding excitement of The Scarlet Letter, sophomores empathized with characters in Lord of the Flies, and the freshmen corrected their grammar lessons with enthusiasm.

Admit it . . . it was fun! It was exciting! English classes are a part of every student's life. Some love them, and some leave them, but as always, English goes on and on and on . . .

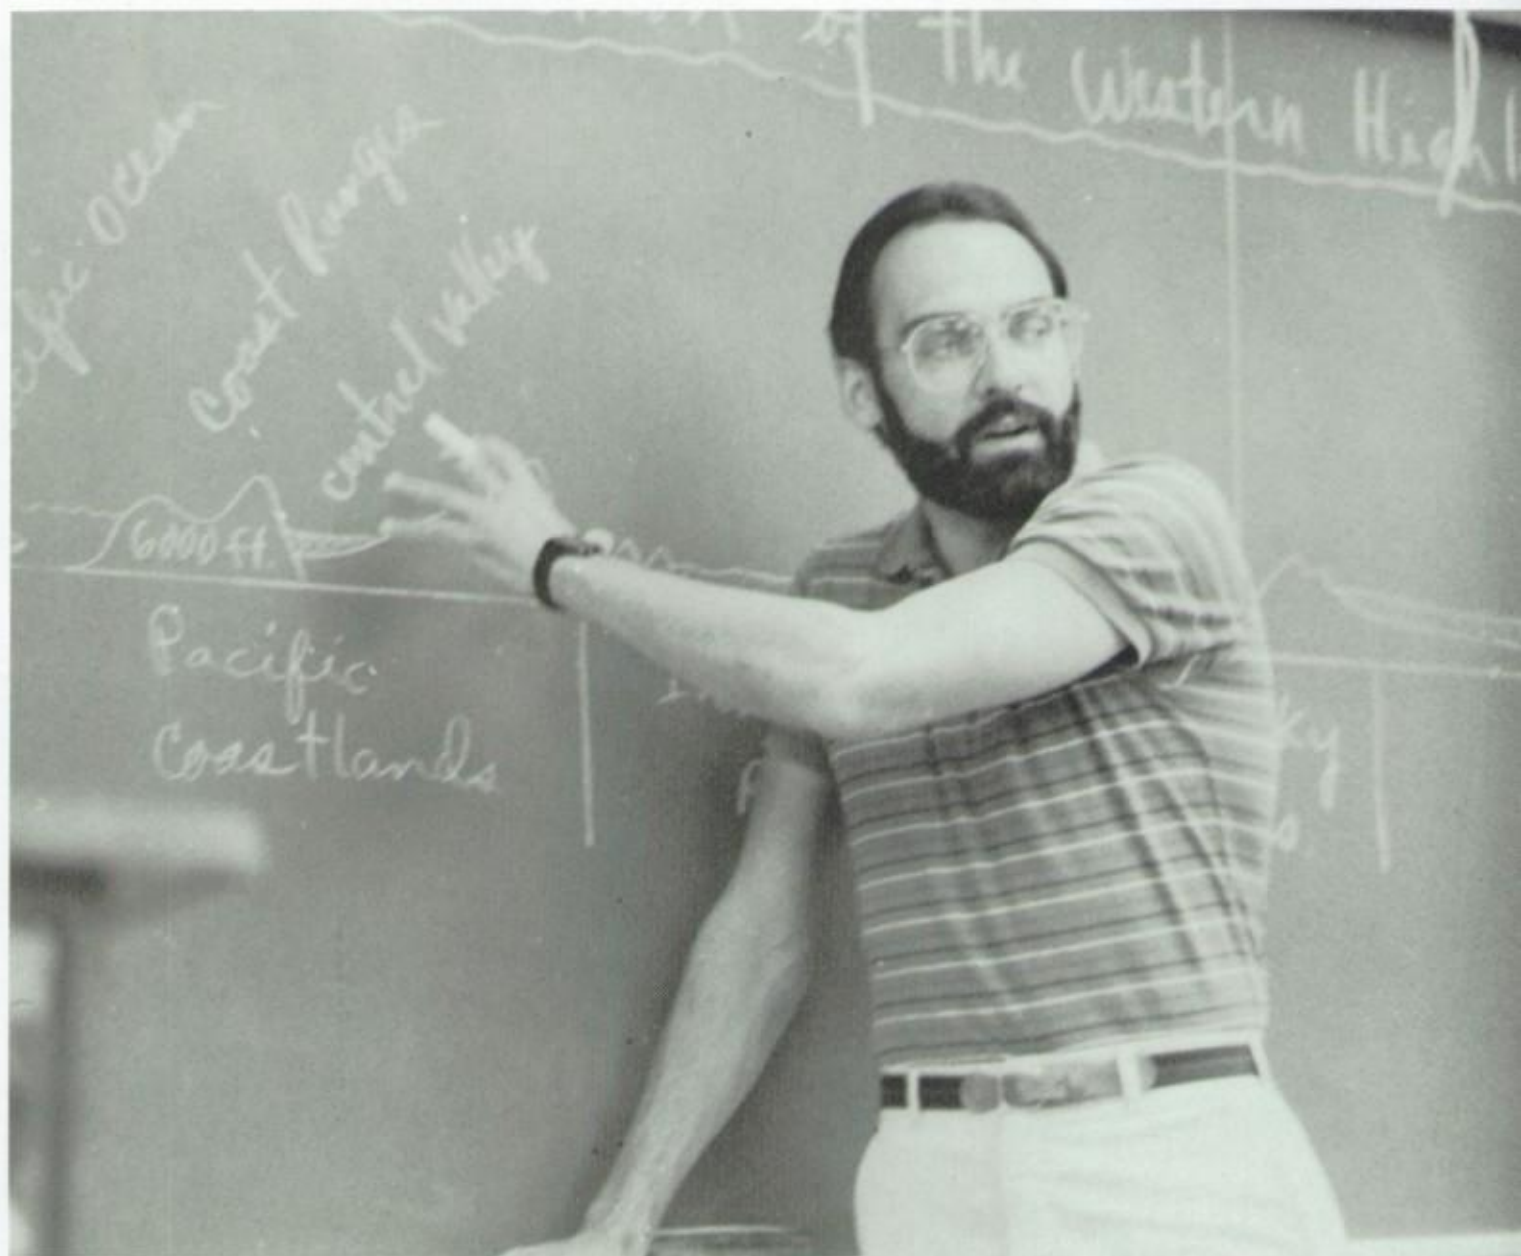

Students React To Science

When it comes to science classes, MHS offers a variety from basic to Physiology to Physics. This year students gave some of their feelings regarding this field of study. One interviewee said "I like the boy-girl seating arrangement". A freshman commented "the animals are neat except for the snakes." When it comes to science teachers, the responses were "My science teacher is very energetic and makes science exciting." The next respondent mentioned that his teacher "is fun and gets the students involved." A final remark was simply, "My science teacher is a pretty cool guy!" Even the department's parrot mascot enjoyed his stay here. As one can see, science is not just an experience for the intellectually inclined. Everyone has his/her own impressions and reactions to the study of science.

Science is something freshmen can tune into most any day as David Hagen and Shawn Sterry show.

Our World Today

One would think by its name that social studies is a place to study. Well, in a way it is, after all, there are a lot of positive social activities which the students take part in. For example, in classes there were discussions going on even before the class began, another class discussion before the class ended. At times notes were constantly being written and passed around the classroom probably so the students knew each other's interpretations of what the teacher was saying. A few people were even studying so intensely that they fell asleep from sheer work exhaustion. Now that's concern!

Social Studies is more than just a place for studying socially. It is said that Social Studies is a place to learn about one's history and the losses and triumphs of our forefathers. It is a place to educate the society so it will prosper and become more productive.

A final reason for Social Studies is that it gives the mind's eye a larger scope. One can learn the future from studying the patterns of the past. In Menomonie, we have pride in our past, present and future. Social Studies puts it all in that proper perspective so all of us can some day tell our children "Social Studies teaches life."

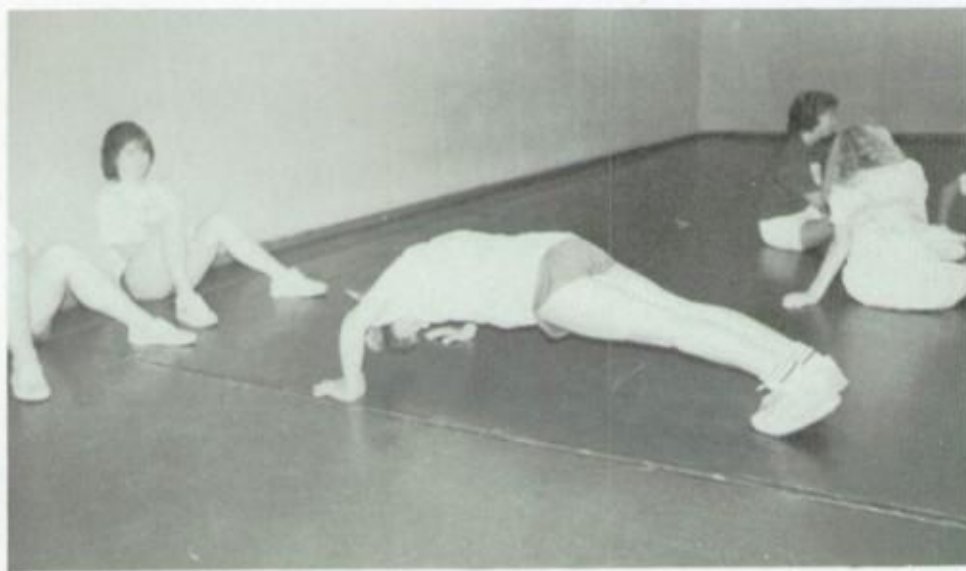

Math Developments

Whether you're taking geometry or some form of Algebra, math is most likely a part of your schedule. Even though not required every year, a large majority of students include math in their studies all through high school. Why the undying devotion to graphs, postulates and word problems? The responses cover a wide range. Some say their parents make them, or their friends all take it, or there's lots of computers to use. All of these reasons of course, are false. Admit it, guys . . . we take math because it's FUN! It's our favorite class, right? It must be, the conversation at lunch centers around the excitement of our homework. Some even bring it to lunch- a sure sign of a math lover. Some don't want to stop at the high school level, so they take it at college. One of the most popular classes taken at Stout through the split campus program is math. Obviously, math will continue to be an integral part of our life: educational and fun!

Mrs. Van Osdale smiles whenever she spots student success.

"Is school work always this fun"? asks Bill Neubauer.

Physically Alive

The P.E. program is operating every day and hour at MHS. This awareness is made sharp after football and basketball teams both went to State last year. According to the students, many of them freshmen, there are many reasons to enjoy P.E. Some like it that they don't have to sit down all the time, and others release their pent up energy. The freshmen are glad to be in P.E. and wear clothing of their own color choice without mandatory gym suits. P.E. is "refreshing" to most as the stuffy classroom is left behind and the physical activity relieves tension and stress. To go further and combine a good mental attitude with physical well-being is naturally an ultimate goal in any program. One student stated this philosophy well when she said, "Physical education makes you feel like you can achieve anything you work for in life, as long as you finish." These few words make MHS the great place it is, healthy people, with great minds. Finishing what they have started in life are walking these halls every day.

Physical fitness is nothing new to Mari Heagle as she shows in P.E. class. Destined to add golf to his list of accomplishments, Tadd Iverson practices his indoor swing.

The fieldhouse on a rainy day is a great place for sophomores Beth Robelia, Lexi Skillings, Chris Hunter, Kathi Wilk, and Dawn Taylor.

Students Earn Dollars

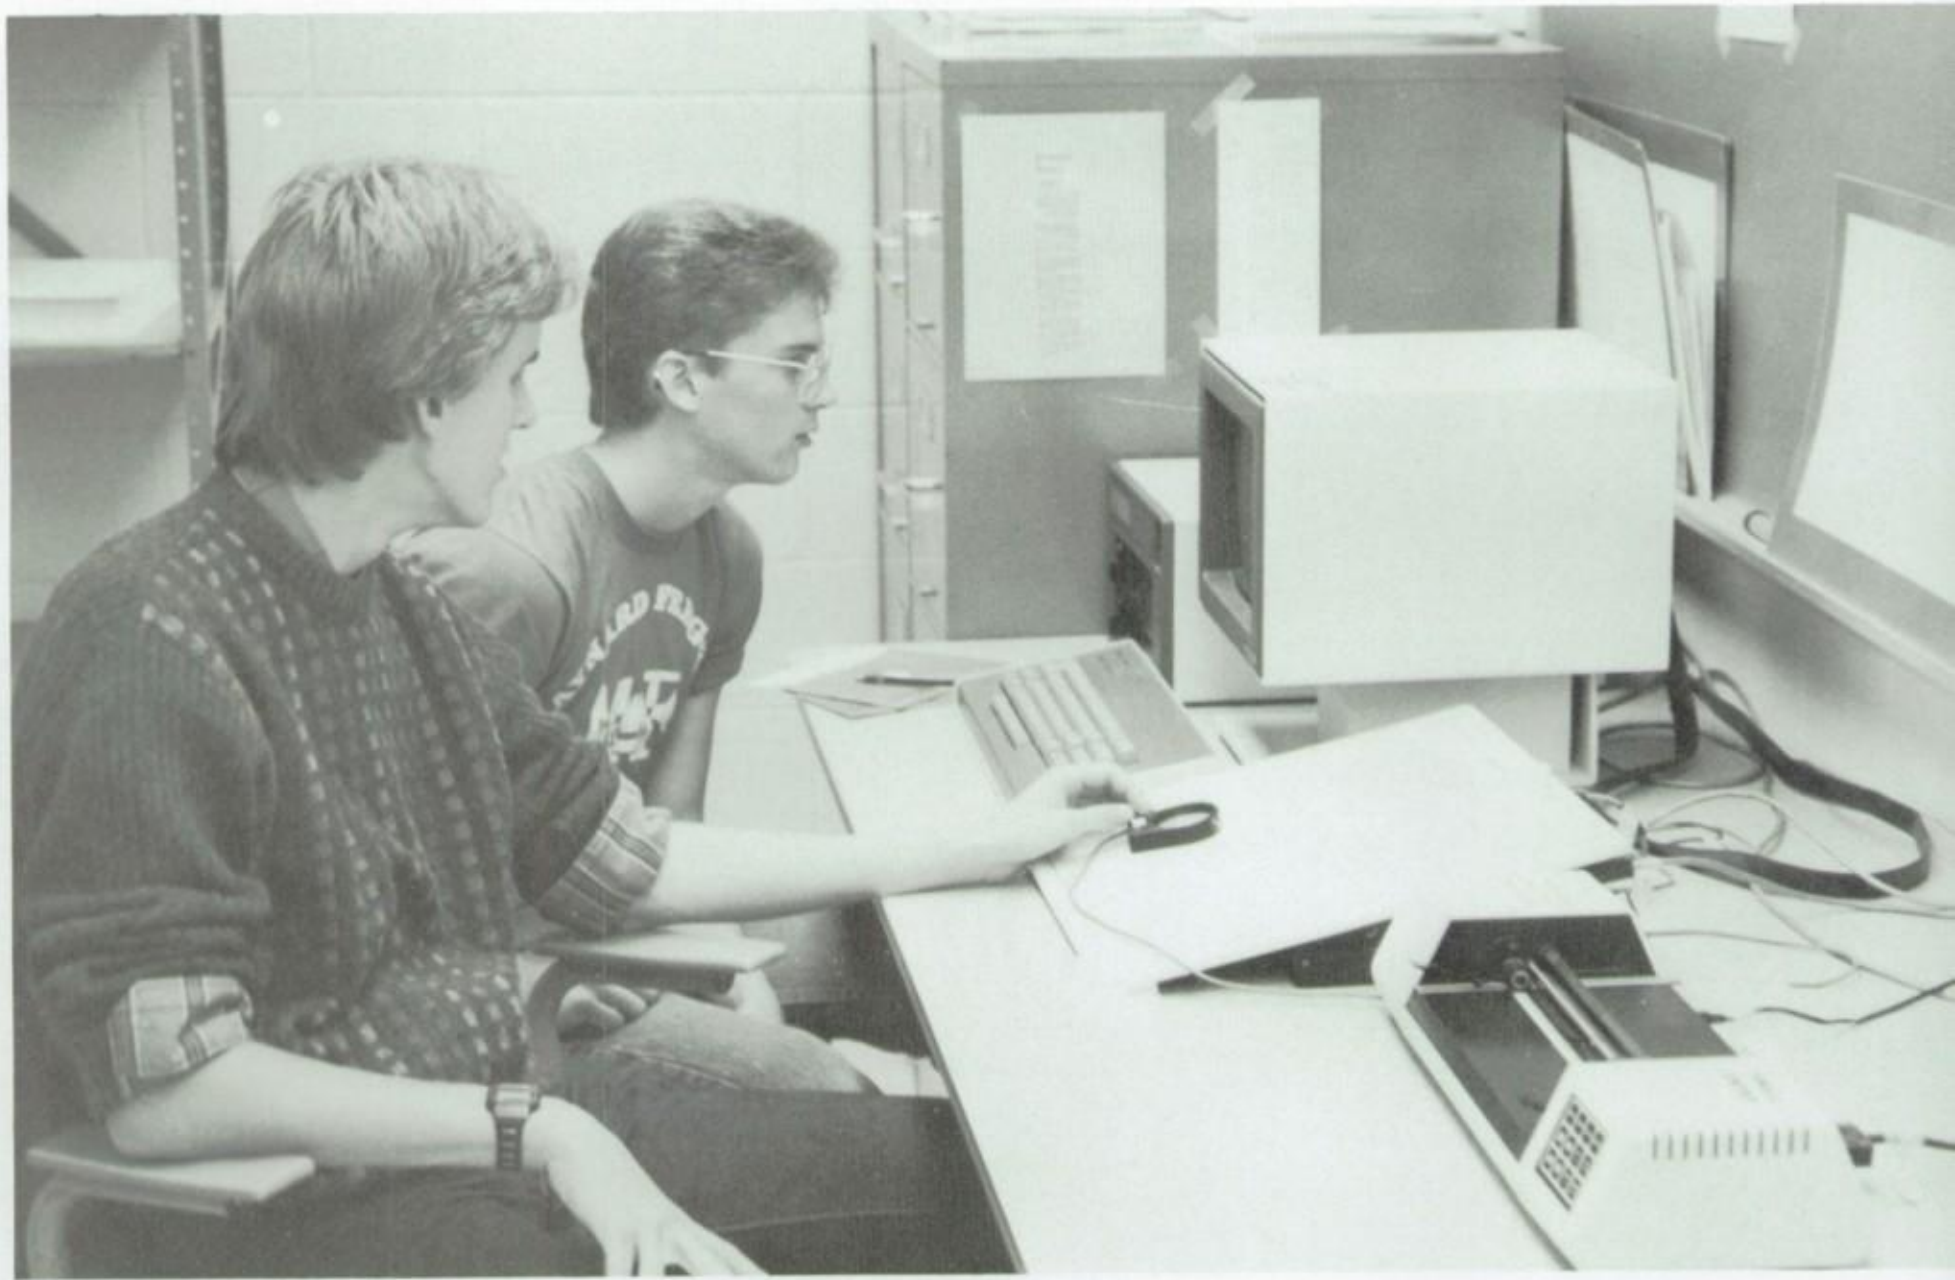

One area of Special Education is devoted to teaching students vocational skills and how to live independently. As a supplement to traditional educational methods, the students participate in various activities in the community. Some of these activities include picking apples, touring the laundry facilities at the hospital, eating at a restaurant, and spending a day at their environmental site in the Knapp hills. In addition to all these activities, the students camped overnight at Hoffman Hills. Prior to the trip, students learned survival skills and how to put up a tent. During the trip, students cooked their own meals, went on nature hikes and enjoyed a variety of sports.

The students themselves made all these events financially possible through fund raising efforts such as raking leaves, making buttons, and selling wrapping paper. All the students agree that their hard work was well worth the rewards!

Laundry is always a fun job, as Kari Lueck demonstrates.

Surviving!

Vocational Education at Menomonie is a multifaceted program. Its areas include: marketing, business, home economics, agriculture, and technical education.

The misunderstanding that only non-college bound students take these courses is rapidly being dispelled. Students are becoming more aware of the advantages of a well-rounded education; particularly the benefits of vocational education for all types of career plans. The skills being learned are not merely specialized skill, but rather survival skills.

The desire to successfully survive in the job market has motivated many students to take advantage of the Co-op program. This program offers students excellent job experience applicable to a specific occupation. The attitude toward working in an adult work setting has been overwhelmingly enthusiastic. Tammy Kistner expressed this feeling when she said "Co-op has given me the opportunity to find a job that is not only enjoyable but is helping me achieve my career goals."

Students are wisely preparing for their future by developing a variety of practical skills today. Whether these skills are used at work or home, it is evident that the vocational department plays an integral role in the life of the students.

The newly crowned Royalty finds Amy Pittman and Don Gjeston wearing the honor well.

"Dreams are Forever" fits the fashion of a formal night to be remembered at MHS.

The decorations and formal attire made that "special" feeling as dancers slowly drifted away those memorable hours of the Junior Prom.

"Dreams Are Forever"

With the help of Mr. Sandfort and the junior class of '87, the Junior Prom was a great success. The week before Prom was a hectic one. Decorations had to be put up, invitations had to be sent, and food had to be purchased, but it all finally came together on Prom night.

At nine o'clock couples began to drift in and dance to the music of the Memories. A record breaking 114 couples attended the evening of May 10. Finally the lights were dimmed and as each couple entered through the magical gate, they were announced by our M.H.S. English teacher, Ms. Julie Hile. After all the couples had been announced it was time to introduce the top ten couples. The spectators and couples watched in anticipation. Finally the Junior class president, Joyce Halama, crowned Don Gjeston and Amy Pittman as Prom king and queen. The crowd broke into a thunderous applause as Don and Amy danced to the theme song "Forever."

As the night came to a close and the couples began to leave, the night became just a fond memory. But the theme, "Dreams are Forever" would always linger in the minds of many.

“Forever”

Now, while we're here alone,
And all is said and done.
Now I can let you know
Because of all you've shown.
I've grown enough to have ya
You'll always be inside of me.

How many roads have gone by?
So many words left unspoken
I need you, to be by your side,
If only to hold you.

Forever in my heart,
Forever we will be.
Even when I'm gone,
You'll be hearing me
Forever.

The night goes on and on providing memories "Forever."

Looking lost are our "colorful" freshmen Holly Bock and Jenny Klatt. On a "casual" note are Staci Baier and Joel Ott. Stopping to admire the view finds a "dressy" Leah Christenson and Lee Brenholt. A "sunny" outlook is demonstrated by Ardis Hullberg and Eric Klopp while treasure hunting is easy work for Julie Utzig and Paul Robelia. This chance meeting provides a "New Dimension" to the pride in personal appearance of our favorite school, Menomonie Senior High.

After Hours

There are many activities that MHS students engage in after hours. On a typical Friday night, many students watch the game and then go to the dance afterwards. Others may choose to work at the Wilson Place or be in a play at the Mabel Tainter. Those interested in physical fitness might spend their extra time at the fieldhouse swimming, shooting baskets, or lifting weights. The outdoor crowd ready all their equipment for tomorrow's hunt while others take in a special late season stock car race at the Red Cedar Speedway. The students with wheels at their disposal may go to Eau Claire or the Twin Cities to concerts, plays, or games. Even just shopping provides many hours of fun. Even though many hate to admit it, they like being home, sleeping, eating, laughing and even doing chores. All of the students, find plenty to do after hours any day.

The game against Eau Claire North provides excitement for the Indian fans where Menomonie won the contest 28 to 6.

Whistles, Chants, And Cheers

Spirit week certainly lived up to its name, for enthusiasm ran wild from athletic day all the way through maroon and white day.

Student Council "Counter talk" debuted on Monday making sure everyone knew the schedule of school and sport activities.

Ecstatic participation mounted to the hilt Wednesday. Classes united together under a common color anxious to compete for skit honors and yell prestige. Undivided attention was given to those performing; school pride was evident in whistles, chants, and cheers. Hardwork and originality was reflected in all the skits even though only two were winners: sophomore class and NHS skits.

As Friday's activities loomed ahead, homework was placed on the back burner. After all, there was the game, parade, and dance to prepare and plan for. Homecoming became a priority topic with students.

Friday, seventh hour finally arrived, the day warm and sunny, welcomed parents and alumni to participate in the spirit of Menomonie's 1986 Homecoming . . .

Homecoming Style-1986

Ahh . . . Homecoming. Everyone's anxious to know who would be the 1986 Homecoming Queen. But before coronation, the alumni had their turn in the spotlight and the winning skits gave an encore performance. And then . . . the moment! Everyone breathed a sigh of approval when Karen Wik was selected to represent the royalty of MHS. The program was over and the parade next.

The crowd charged with excitement dashing off in a frenzy, making their way to find the ideal spot to watch the parade. Under the sunny skies, umbrellas were forgotten, so when it "rained on our parade" most thought all was lost. Those who chose to stick out the showers were rewarded by smiling faces and flying candy as the procession began. The parade being a huge success, approval was whole hearted and yet the fun had only begun.

Here we see Laura Wyss with her attendants Chad Schutts and Mike Noreen.

Last but certainly not least is the 1986 MHS Homecoming Queen Karen Wik.

Voyage Round My Father

As a way of ending her career at M.H.S., Ms. Julie S. Hile issued a challenge to her young but dedicated cast, by choosing John Mortimer's play A Voyage Round My Father. Cast members played characters ranging from eight years old to sixty years old. Jeff Nyseth, who played the father, had to overcome the challenge of learning to act blind. The perfect touch was added to this play by Jon Menz playing his original music.

The spring play proved to be a challenge for all who were involved, but Ms. Hile's experience, talent, and patience helped everyone learn many valuable lessons that the cast will use for many years to come. Thank you, Ms. Hile.

Bye Bye, Birdie!

Mrs. Tomfohr, the new director writes: As a new director, my primary goal was to maintain or even increase the high level of interest and participation in drama at MHS, as well as draw in this year's freshmen. I hoped to further bolster our program by strengthening community support. We succeeded, with the Menomonie Theatre Guild working closely on costuming, set construction, and directorial consultation. I also simply wanted people from the community to attend the play and have a wonderful, entertaining evening and the indication is that they did just that! Bye, Bye, Birdie, finally, is a musical that promised to stretch the cast without making unrealistic demands on it. In the end, I wanted the cast to present a musical that sparkled musically, sending both actor and audience into the make believe of Sweet Apple, Ohio.

You did it. Bye Bye Birdie was presented to full houses for three dynamic evenings. The cast and the community loved it. What's next?

New Dimensions

Members of the state bound Academic Decathlon team are: Mike Leach, Joe Murray, Steve Young, Paul Robelia, Coach Emy Van Osdale, Rob Burns, Jeff Burgfechtel, Kurt Bertelson, Bill Neuenfeldt, and Coach Ellwyn Hendrickson.

Homecoming's not complete until the M.H.S. Band gives a concert in front of the Stout Administration Building where Kari Bostrom shows her best style.

ORGANIZATIONS

Enjoying the Josten's Super Summer Seminar at UW Stevens Point are this year's editors Ardis Hullberg and Julie Utzig.

"You mean I have to draw this again?" asks freshman yearbook volunteer Sarah Folz.

The yearbook staff: Jenny Klatt, Emily Leventhal, Ann Hague, Jill Opseth, Ardis Hullberg, Sheila Flom, Julie Utzig, Bruce Muller, Sarah Folz, Jackie Brady, Sarah Roemhildt, Tina Gundlach, Lisa Fenske, Vince Hague, Mr. Foxwell, Mindy Mangin, Kathryn Zimmerman, Hannah Wik, and Mr. Pitt.

An editor's job is never done as Ardis Hullberg points out yet another new idea to Mr. Foxwell.

Working on a story requires lots of input from Mindy Mangin, Hannah Wik, and Emily Leventhal.

Negative prints are developed carefully under the scrutiny of Bruce Muller.

Yearbook Moves

The yearbook staff has gone through many changes. All the materials were moved from the art room to room 235 to accommodate an advisor change. Mr. Foxwell took over Mr. Norton's role and persuaded Layne Pitt to assume the role of co-advisor. Mr. Pitt's photography expertise enabled the yearbook to enlarge on the number of photographers and photos available. Bruce Muller once again played a key role by taking and developing photos but he had the assistance of Jeff Burfechtel, Robyn May, Aaron Gams, and Jeff Pember.

Last year's capable editor Julie Utzig put everyone's mind at ease when she consented to serve as editor again. The staff was also fortunate when Ardis Hullberg joined Julie as co-editor. After spending three days at a Yearbook camp in Stevens Point last summer Julie and Ardis came back with fresh ideas and a new layout design.

Jill Opseth took the reign as copy supervisor and helped Emily Leventhal, Lora Larson, Catherine Zimmerman, and Ann Hauge write copy. The numerous layouts were done by Sheila Flom, Lisa Melick, Sarah Folz, Jenny Klatt, Tina Gundlach, Lisa Fenske, and Anne King. This year's business managers, Sarah Roemhildt and Jackie Brady sold more ads than ever before. They also planned the sales of the books to the Student Body. The pages of this yearbook would never have been sent out on time if it hadn't been for typist Melanie Deutsch who put in long hours deciphering stories from teachers and coaches.

The staff would like to thank all who helped with the yearbook for their time and patience.

The Academic Decathlon team consists of: Row 1: Mike Leach, Jeff Burgfechtel, Rob Burns, and Joe Murray. Row 2: Mr. Hendrikson, Bill Neuenfeldt, Bill Hunt, Dana Bahnsen, Paul Robelia, Mrs. VanOsdale, Kurt Bertelson, and Steve Young.

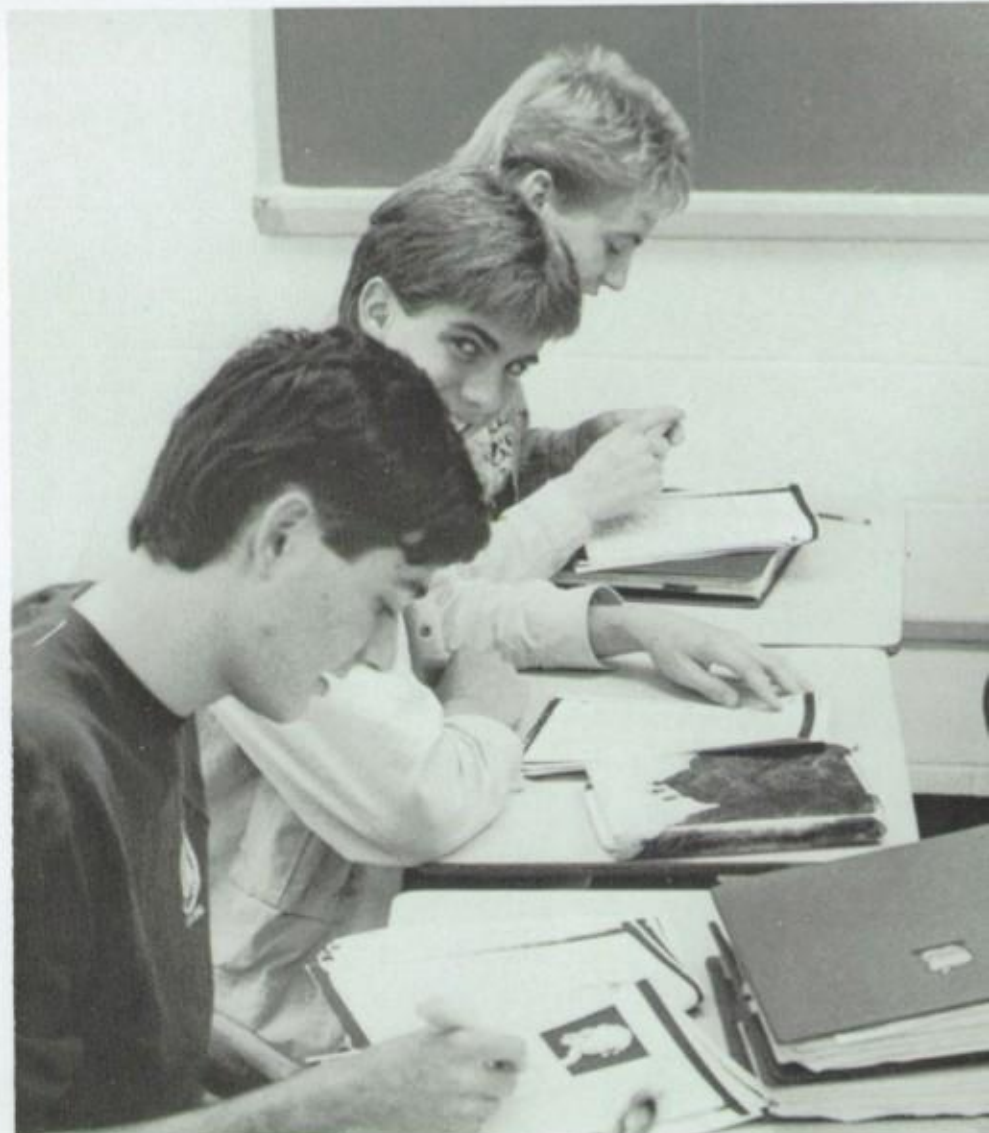

Armed with highlighter markers, Decathlon team members Paul Robelia, Bill Neuenfeldt, and Steve Young, anxiously read through important material.

Wisconsin Third In Nation

This group deals with an emphasis on excellence in learning and the interconnectedness of all education. Those are noble goals but our A.D. team does this well. This is the third year of this organization's existence here at MHS but the team was ranked ninth in the state in 85, sixth in 86 and the results for this year are still eagerly awaited. The advisors are Mrs. VanOsdale and Mr. Hendrickson. In the sub-regional competition nineteen schools took part but MHS was one of the three that advanced. The team worked at the subject matter in the form of economics, math, science, astronomy, and Renaissance history and art. In the literature realm HEART OF DARKNESS and HAMLET were the main fields of study. The team worked hard helping to earn Wisconsin the position of one of the top three states with California and Texas.

The participants and categories this year were Honors Category: Paul Robelia, Bill Neuenfeldt and Bob Burns, Scholastic Category: Kurt Bertelson, Jeff Burgfechtel, and Joe Murray, and Varsity Category: Steve Young and Mike Leach.

The Force Of Forensics

This year the Menomonie Forensics team is under the leadership of a new advisor. Mr. Abraham, who coached Forensics last year, took over as the head coach assuming the position previously held by Mr. Hendrickson.

Many new talents joined the team this season which gave the squad a total of fifty-five participants. In the competitions this year, the team was busy as they had to host the Menomonie Invitational for the sixth year in a row, they hosted the sub-district competition, and they also provided the organizational ability for the district.

Assistant coaches this year were Ms. Kitze and Mrs. Barnett. Both have coached Forensics before and are a definite part of the Menomonie winning tradition that is so evident in the Forensics field.

Storyteller Kim Kingsbury begins the memorization for her storytelling category.

Heeeeeere's Jimmy

Mrs. Larkin and Mrs. Johnson were heard singing in the halls, knowing that National Honor Society would be the best ever.

Fall found the society extremely busy, preparing for homecoming activities. President Bill Neuenfeldt, Vice President Jerry Larkin, Treasurer Paul Robelia, and Secretary Lori Seastrand led the group to a winning club skit performance with "The Jimmy Carson Show."

As winter approached, senior members prepared for the induction of newly selected junior and senior members. Inductees were required to wear specially tailored NHS bur-lap bags and designer shower caps crowned with a balloon.

Spring activities focused on service. As a group, a volunteer project was completed. In addition, individuals chose their own community service project.

"Being in NHS gives you an incentive to improve yourself." Well said, Roger Gehring!

New NHS members are Row 1: Jill Opseth, Amy Leff, Sue Jones, Cherie Martin, and Pam Willow. Row 2: Sara Falkofske, Mike Lawrence, Chris Bowman, Bruce Mueller, Eric Gabriel, Travis Glampe, and Robin Ebert.

Showing New Strength

Student Council has been quite active this year. Several new leaders have shown their strengths during the many events of the year. Some of the leaders attended a summer Leadership at Stevens Point. Others attended the annual Fall Leadership Conference at Telemark Lodge. In the beginning of the year the Council hosted a party for all the new students. Also, the group helped take a bite out of crime while working with Students Stopping Crime. The Council continued in their role of feeding the tired and hungry masses from the concession stand.

New purchases were an electronic information board located in the main lobby. The student support and participation in this year's Homecoming activities was overwhelming.

The council hosted a very informative and enriching Spring Leadership Lab at University of Wisconsin Stout. To end the year on a positive note, members attended a conference on leadership in Green Lake, Wisconsin.

Highlighted Halftimes

The 1986-87 school year proved to be one of change and growth for the MHS Concert Band and Jazz Ensemble. The Marching Indians had an added attraction in their half-time marching show during football season. The Pom-pom squad joined them on the field and added a new point of interest. The Marching Indians Flag Squad also was a change of pace with their new uniforms and new directors. In November, band members sold pizzas to help raise money for new uniforms.

The MHS Jazz Ensemble had 23 members this year, the largest number of members in several years. In early December they traveled to District I in Eau Claire to play a concert and also did concerts for several elementary schools throughout the year.

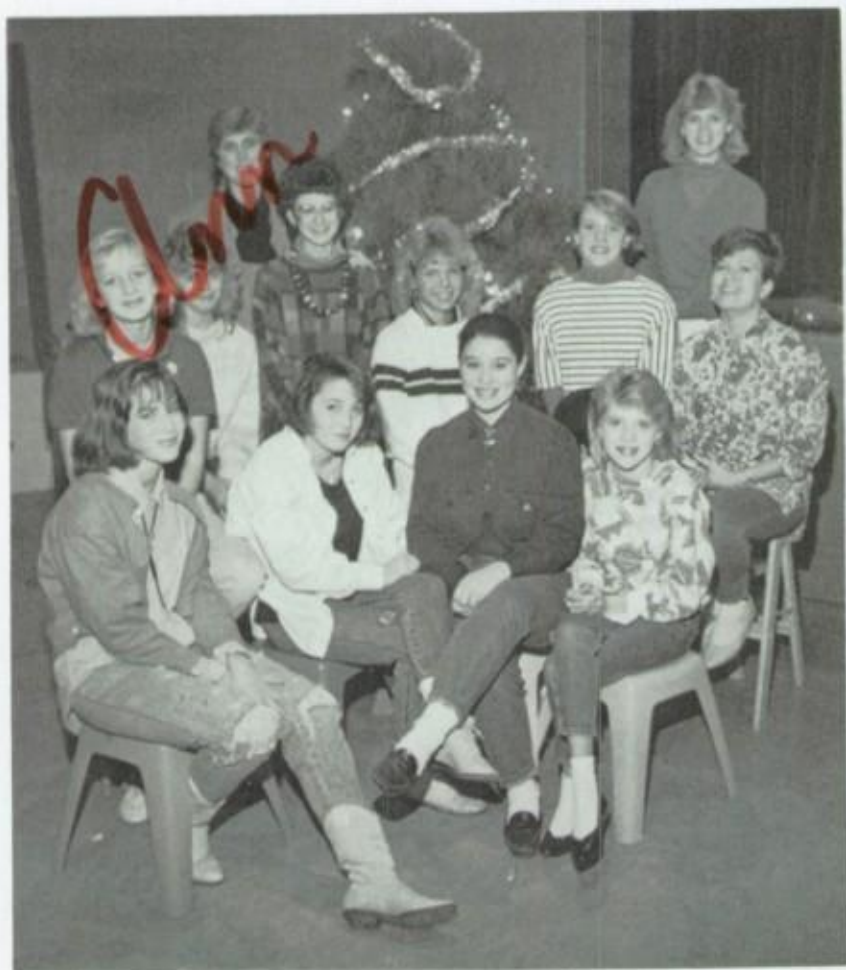

Officers were: Bill Neuenfeldt-President; Sue Samuel-Secretary; Jim Gundlach-Treasurer; Tina Gundlach- Librarian.

Synthesized Singers

Walking into your classroom, someone told you, "Me may mah moh and moo." Before you could run and hide you were told, "Zinga zinga zoo!"

Don't worry, you weren't going crazy. You just stumbled into Room 120; concert choir. The previous phrases were just a couple of the many warm-ups students sang each day.

Choir, like many other organizations, sold candy. Their profit went toward a trip to Chanhassen to see "My Fair Lady". The excursion included a shopping stop at Southdale.

One obstacle was finally hurdled—more guys finally discovered that singing was fun (especially with a synthesizer). Synthesizer in choir? It's true! Menomonie's music parents donated money to buy one for choir.

Highlights of the year included the Christmas concert, annual music contest, and spring pop concert.

Choir proved to be as great as ever, except for the news that Miss Peterson would not return the following year. In response to her engagement, choir members asked, "Can we sing at your wedding?"

Furnishing The Weight Room

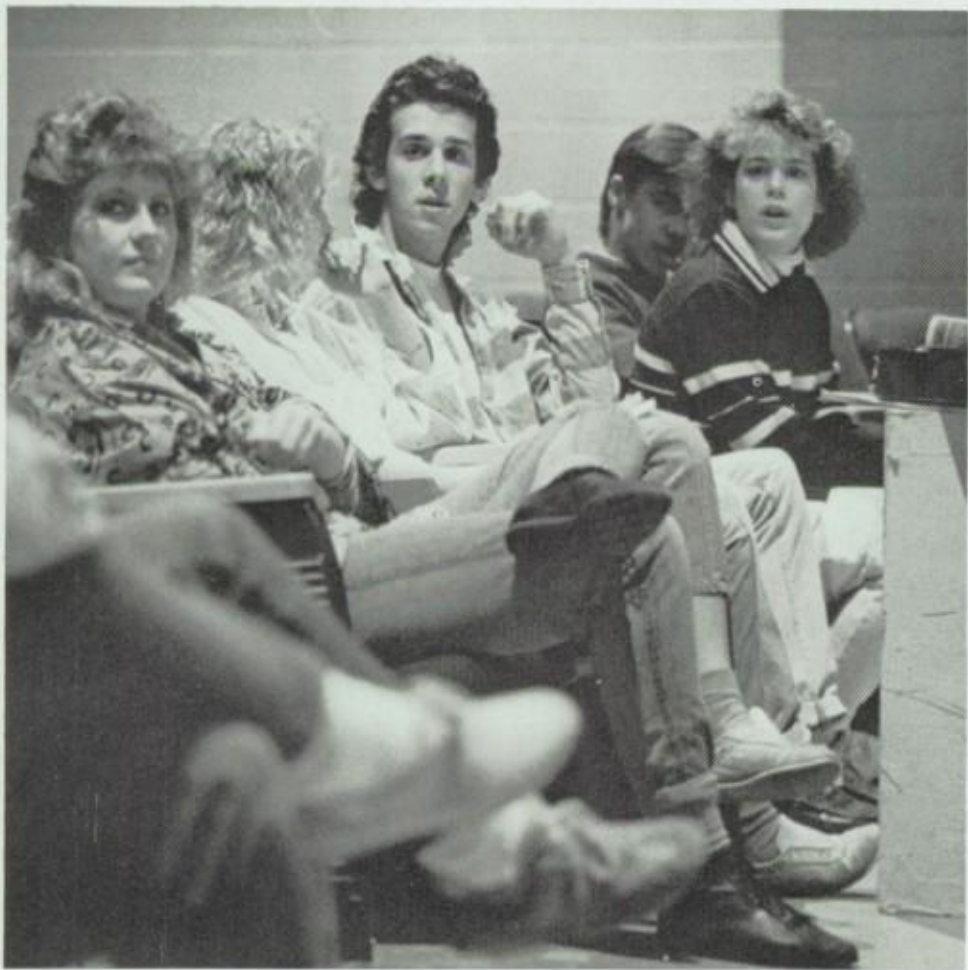

Representing all letter winners, M-Club is designed to serve the athletes and their respective programs.

An important aspect was raising money. Funds earned in the past as well as the present have furnished the weight room, and helped purchase the pool's electronic timing device.

Annually the club gives special recognition to all athletes who have received Big Rivers All-Conference honors by presenting them with a tic tac/lapel pin. Those receiving this award for a second time were given a plaque for their achievements. At the end of their senior year, all M-Club members received a plaque listing the sports they lettered in.

The officers were: Travis Glampe-President, Nick Vranak-Vice-President, Laura Wyss-Secretary, Jenny Baier-Treasurer. Dale Dahlke and Wanda Schwoch enthusiastically advised the group.

"We're going on stage to do what?" asks a surprised Janet Saatkamp, Kris Wegman, Jon Menz, Gail Anderson, and Lee Brenholt, as Drama club members wait in the auditorium.

Making It Happen

The Drama club provided much support for the entire program this year. The active group helped onstage and off. Mrs. Tomfohr, the drama director this year, appreciated the efforts of the organization as they helped to make her productions easier in so many ways. She hopes to use the group in the future to help more with the technical aspects of the production. This is the group that really makes it happen.

Officers this year were Maree Holmstrom: President, Sue Samuel: Secretary, and Blaine Halvorson: Treasurer.

They Spoke What?

The Spanish Club has been working hard this year to make their organization a cohesive group ready to take on the perils of international travel, terrorism, and varying rates of currency exchange. The club attended a Spanish Theatre presentation in Eau Claire, and went to a dinner at Chi Chi's restaurant afterwards.

During the year they hosted a dance, they sold candy, they listened to stories of foreign travel to Spain as told by Corrine Thibado, Amy Modahl, and Senora Smith. They were Secret Santas, they went to a soccer game, and they made plans to go to Mexico in the summer of 87 and Spain again in 1988. Officers for the year were Amy Modahl: President, Amy Sandfort: Vice President, Katie Hall: Secretary, and Kristi Noye: Treasurer.

The members of the Spanish Club are Row 1: Jenny Ulesich, Mike Schuler, Joe Heilhecker, Roland Agustin, Matt Flug, Carrie Drinkwine, Nikki Henderson, Frani McCausland, Emily Levanthal, Brad Miller, Sheila Flom, and Lee Hathaway. D.E.C.A. = Action

The letters for this club stand for Distributive Education Clubs of America but the organization represents more than simply acquiring knowledge about marketing education. This organization provides encouragement, it helps its members to participate in fundraisers, leadership labs, and other beneficial competitions.

Action is another word to describe this group. There are activities around every corner from going skiing to taking excursions to the Twin Cities where they visit prospering businesses.

The most important aspect of D.E.C.A. is caring. This year, through the "Cares and Shares" program, three less fortunate Menomonie families were provided with hefty Thanksgiving dinners. These members are learning more than any classroom could possibly teach them; they're learning about life first-hand. Keep up the good work D.E.C.A.

Our Own FBLA

Club advisor Ken Skultety, admits that "FBLA is a great group to be in as it helps members expand their lives." The FBLA organization affects its members by involving them in school and community activities. The Blood Drive during the fall and spring was very successful and since this group sponsored the event, they felt at least partially responsible for its success.

In keeping with the Christmas spirit, the FBLA members responded to "Dear Santa . . ." letters written by the elementary school children. The group participated in competitions at the regional, state and national levels. During their off hours, the group played softball and volleyball with other members. Fifty-three students participated this year and the officers were Brenda Otto-President, Sue Samuel-Vice President, Leah Hammond-Treasurer, Becky Evan-Secretary, and Shannon Close-Reporter.

The FBLA group included in row 1: Brenda Otto, Sue Samuel, Becky Evan, Shannon Close, Leah Hammond, Row 2: Laurie Wolfe, Maria Wilson, Terri Frank, Mary Schumacher, Kami Yaeger, Kari Jacobs, Julie Nelson, Heather Kado, and Carolyn Zengel. Home Economics On The Move

Being in FHA is quite an experience. One learns to adapt to the way of life needed for homemaking. The group members are quick to learn that homemaking today does not mean staying at home. An individual can have a career and still be a homemaker as in many cases today. The older members provided the leadership this year as Robin Kuhn, Tracey Schlemn, Becky Bennett, Heather Mason, and Jayme Leach. Mrs. Knutson served as the advisor this year and coordinated the giving to needy families that the group does each year at Thanksgiving and Christmas. The sledding party in January proved to be fun for all making this FHA year one to be remembered.

FHA members in row 1: Jill Kadinger, Tammy Kistner, Heidi Ford, Heather Lewis, and Lisa Merritt. Row 2: Margaret Larson, Colleen Kittleson, Becky Hotchkiss, Heather Johnson, Cari Drinkwine, Martha Jacobson, Liz Schraeder, Tracey Barber, Mindy Mangin, Ann Hague, and Renee Smith. What's The Problem?

Students in search of a Peer Counselor found themselves directed to a group working under a new name, Friends Confidential.

The group's new name did not however, alter their goal: being available for any student who had a problem.

Returning seniors and new members became acquainted during a kick off training session that helped members improve their listening and communicating skills.

Throughout the year, guest speakers were invited to tell about support groups within the community.

Mary Crownhart and Dean Lund served as advisors and Paula Pofrop was a consultant. All three were excited about having restarted the program after its absence for evaluation last year.

One "Friend", Scot R. Partlow, said, "We're a bunch of kids available for other kids to come and talk to about their problems. Who can ask for anything more?"

F.F.A. On Tour

Ron Skillings and Jerry Hotchkiss attended a National FFA leadership conference for a week in our Nation's Capital Washington, D.C. John Hotchkiss, Doug Prochnow, Forrest Johnson, and David Schauer attended the National FFA convention in Kansas City, MO.

Our FFA chapter promoted a vocational club dance as a Memorial to Todd Holden.

Once again the chapter sponsored their annual fund raiser; the orange, grapefruit, and apple sales.

The F.F.A. always looks forward to their annual FFA day at MHS held during the week of George Washington's birthday. At this time, the accomplishments of the officers and club are recognized. This year's officers were: Jerry Hotchkiss-President, Craig Fregine-Vice President, Craig Lecheler-Treasurer, Ron Skillings-Secretary, Cari Husby-Reporter, John Hotchkiss-Parliamentarian, Jeff Schauf-Sentinel, Doug Prochnow-Chaplain.

All these students helped to make this year one of the most active times ever.

State Fair Exhibit

This year the V.I.C.A. club set up a mass production activity which was deemed so unique that it was displayed in Madison with over eight thousand people participating. When school began, the local chapter was busy with Homecoming activities and softball games against other vocational clubs. Also in the fall, the club assisted the Red Cross Blood Drive and the V.I.C.A. members had the highest percentage of donors when compared with the other co-op classes. In the winter months basketball, volleyball and floor hockey provided the recreation. In their quieter moments, the members created a storage cabinet for Lucas School and did many other auto-related projects. The leadership and skill activities provided many challenges for this year's members.

The Officers were Ken Donicht: President, Kevin Knopps: Secretary, Kurt Jacobs: Treasurer, Jerry Tickler: Reporter, and Chad Shutts: Parliamentarian.

Making Waves

The fourth year for this organization proved to be another successful year. There were more D.J.'s this year than ever before. The club became involved with giving information about upcoming events and gave members experience in the communications field. The club may be heard on 90.7 FM WVSS from the University of Wisconsin-Stout Communications Building. They are on the air each Saturday from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. playing anything from rock to the top twenty. The club officers this year were Jim Vaughn: President, Mike Fossum: Vice-President, Donnette Brock: Secretary, Aaron Gams: Parliamentarian, and Ryan Bailey: Treasurer and Reporter.

SPORTS

Girls Swing Softly

The Menomonie girls' varsity softball team had their ups and downs this year losing their first four conference games but winning the rest taking second in conference. This was the first year they were kept from the Big Rivers Championship.

Even though they came in second, state was still just around the corner. With the girls determination, and with the help of their coach Pat Helixon, they won regionals against Chippewa 9-0, and Eau Claire Memorial 9-5.

This seasons starters were Becky Evan-pitcher, April May-catcher, Chris Stainer-first base, Brook Bundy-second base, Beth Topper-short stop, and Stacy Close-third base. The outfield included Jamie Tilleson-in left, Anita Hayden-in center, and Paula Frank-in right. These girls along with the rest of the team pulled together to produce a winning season they all can be proud of.

Play Ball Girls!

The 1986 J.V. team certainly had reason to cheer. They ended their season number one and undefeated. Their success even included victories over several varsity teams. Brook Bundy and Chris Stainer had the chance to play with varsity, and Shannon Close from varsity helped J.V. by pitching at several of their games. Even with players coming and going, the team had it all together.

The Sophomores admitted to having a slow start, but once the season progressed, their efforts were rewarded by a 5-3 record. The team was pleased with Shari Buss and Angie Christenson's pitching as well as an overall fantastic hitting season. They're all looking forward to 1987 for another super season.

The Freshman team learned that having fun is not dependent on the number of games played. The season started slow and unfortunately, game opportunities were few. Even though they lost their only two games, the girls have big plans for ways to improve their game.

Walter Goes To State

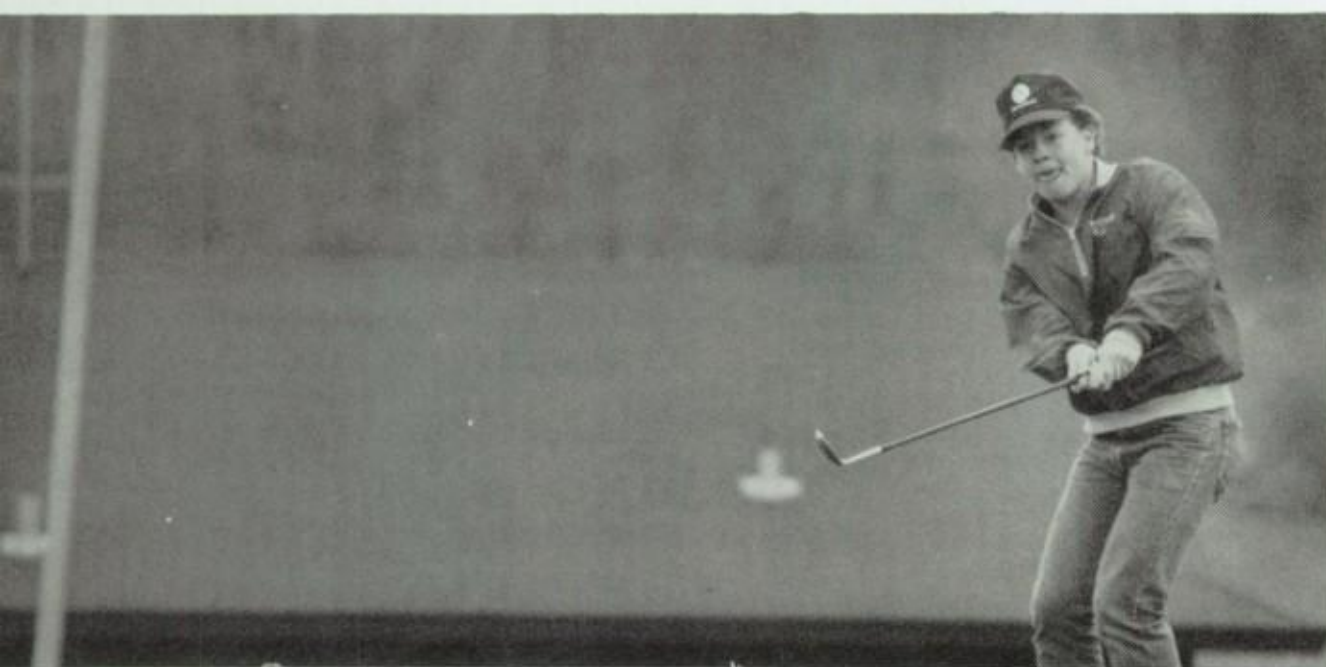

The golf team started out their season with 20 candidates for five varsity and five junior varsity positions. The team was made up of one senior, five juniors, three sophomores, and eleven freshmen. Since the team was fairly young and inexperienced, a rebuilding year was expected in the early part of the season.

Halfway through the season, the team had a surprising 30-11 record. Highlighting this mark was a 4th place finish at the 20 team invitational at Hayward and Spooner. Freshman Ben Walter also finished fourth individually at the meet out of 100 golfers.

As the team progressed, their record seemed to falter a bit so that by the regional tournament time the varsity record was 32-20. The team then won the Prescott regional by three strokes over River Falls. At the Hayward Sectional Tournament, Menomonie finished in 5th place out of eight teams. Ben Walter finished in 4th place individually and qualified for the state tournament at Lake Arrowhead Golf Course in Nekoosa. Ben placed 21st out of 101 golfers at the state tournament in his first trip to state as a freshman.

Precision putting is all part of the match for Bruce Platter.
A chip out of the rough puts Ben Walter ahead of the pack.

Smashing Success

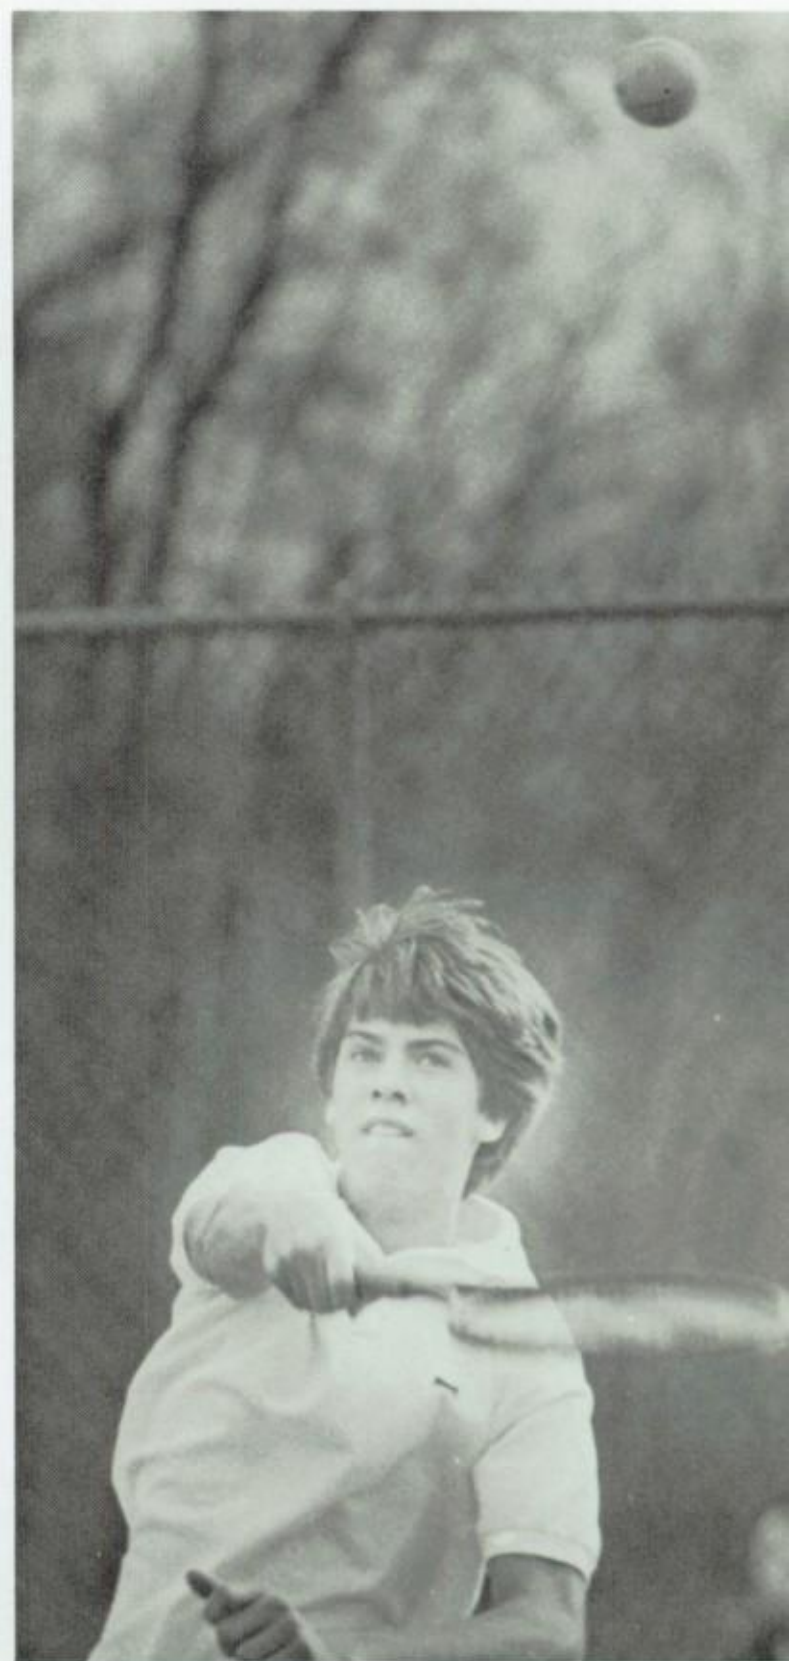

The 1986 tennis team was a very young one this season. The varsity team consisted of three juniors and three sophomores, #1 Chad Barnard (junior), #2 Tony Kothlow (sophomore), #3 Arne Nystuen (sophomore), #4 Bill Neuenfelt (junior), #5 Steve Hoffman (sophomore), and #6 Steve Hellwich (junior). Matt Cleary, who was on the J.V. team, was the only senior who played this season. The other members of the j.v. team were juniors Bill Hunt, Dan Larson, and Randy Estes and sophomores Brendon Sterry, Mike Schuler, Jeff Hokanson, and Brian Rogers and freshman Joel Ott.

The team's losses matched their victories with a 10-10 season record. The #1 seed singles player, Chad Barnard won his match at sectionals and was eligible to compete at state.

Congratulations goes to Chad and the other members of the team for a successful season.

Connecting with the ball is the only thought on Steve Hoffman's mind. An exact form is demonstrated by a skillful Indian netter, Tony Kothlow. Physical dexterity is Arne Nystuen's strength if he can connect on this play. He did.

Boys' Team On Track

The season opened with promise as the Indian Boys won their first eight meets. The depth in each event was the largest factor, making up for the lack of any super talent. The second half of the season was less consistent, due in part to injuries.

The close of the season became the high point when the total team effort led to a win over Chi Hi at Rice Lake in the Regional Championships. Four boys continued on to qualify for state meet competition: John Ellenson (high jump), Sam Ebute (triple jump), Scott Wheeler (1600 m run), and Chris Heymans (high hurdles and 300 intermediate hurdles).

The depth of each event, good consistency, and hard work led the 1986 track team to an awesome 63.5 record. Individual honors were bestowed upon John Ellenson and captain Brady Pierce for field events; Chris Heymans, for best runner; and Sam Ebute, for Most Valuable.

A handoff by Steve Sheppard sends Eric Gabriel, on his way.
 Vaulting takes precision skills as Mark McNaughton demonstrates.
 Showing his "style," Sam Ebute strives for yet another fieldhouse record.

Once again, Menomonie comes in first and second thanks to Eric Siler and Alan Fahl.
With a dramatic leap, Mike Lawrence goes for a record.

First row: John Biesterveld, Roland Augustin, Shane Klopp. Second row: Steve Zinsli, Ed Roethke, Dan Lambee, Scott Puhl, Jim Draeger. Third row: Nate Holden, Steve Sheppard, Scott Wheeler, Mark Kieser, Eric Silver. Fourth row: Buddy Bowlin, Greg Weber, Aaron Beasley, Matt Flug, Lewis Anderson, Alan Fahl, Eric Gabriel, Coach Edler, Dan Polachek. Fifth row: Brian Bixby, Mike Nooney, Nate Williams, Dan Hagaman, Rob Burns, Mike Lawrence, Ken Purk, Roger Gehring, Greg Smith, Coach Kelly, Manager Tammy Schleusner, Mike Whittlinger, Coach Hamilton. Sixth row: Ken Stewart, Matt Leverenz, Scot Partlow, Mark McNaughton, Coach Olson, Jason Yancey, Coach Dalke, Coach Loderhose. Seventh row: Brady Pierce, Brant Moegenburg, Sam Ebute, Scott Ebert, Chris Heymens, Coach Kraft, Coach Peterson.

Girls Take Regionals

The 1986 Girls' Track and Field team finished another successful season with an overall record of 61 wins and 10 losses. Highlighting the season for the Menomonie Girls were championships at the Amery Invitational and the New Richmond Relays. Menomonie placed third in the Big Rivers Conference meet and second in the Regional meet.

Setting and achieving personal goals is an important part in any sport. Leading the way for the 1986 Menomonie girls were captains Jodi Anderson, Sue Henderson, and Sherri Steinmeyer. These three girls were joined by teammates Christi Ocholi, Cherie Martin, and Kristi Noye to make up the top six point winners for the 1986 team.

With the athletic talent of all four classes combined, the season could have been no less than it was: FANTASTIC!!

Row 1: Sue Henderson, Corinna See, Lisa Hamm Row 2: Lisa Jalowitz, Jodi Anderson, Jenny Baier, Teresa Stokes Row 3: Sheila Flom, Theresa Danovsky, Kelly Wilson, Jackie Pax, Kristi Noye, Colleen Hemauer Row 4: Wendy Werner, Sue Kiel, Kristy Husby, Lori Seastrand, Lisa Ellison, Meg Dimock, Linnae Frank Row 5: Kari Howe, Angie Amundson, Meg Mosler, Cheri Martin, Cathy Hulbert, Eun Lee Row 6: Coach Peterson, Sherri Steinmeyer, Kris Shoemaker, Maria Moseler, Beth Robelia, Jena Wood, Christi Ocholi, Kris Robelia, Elizabeth Schutts, Shelley Schutt, Kate Nooney Row 7: Coach Edler, Coach Olson, Coach Dahlke, Coach Loder-nose, Mary Hampton, Lori Bernschot, and Coach Kelley.

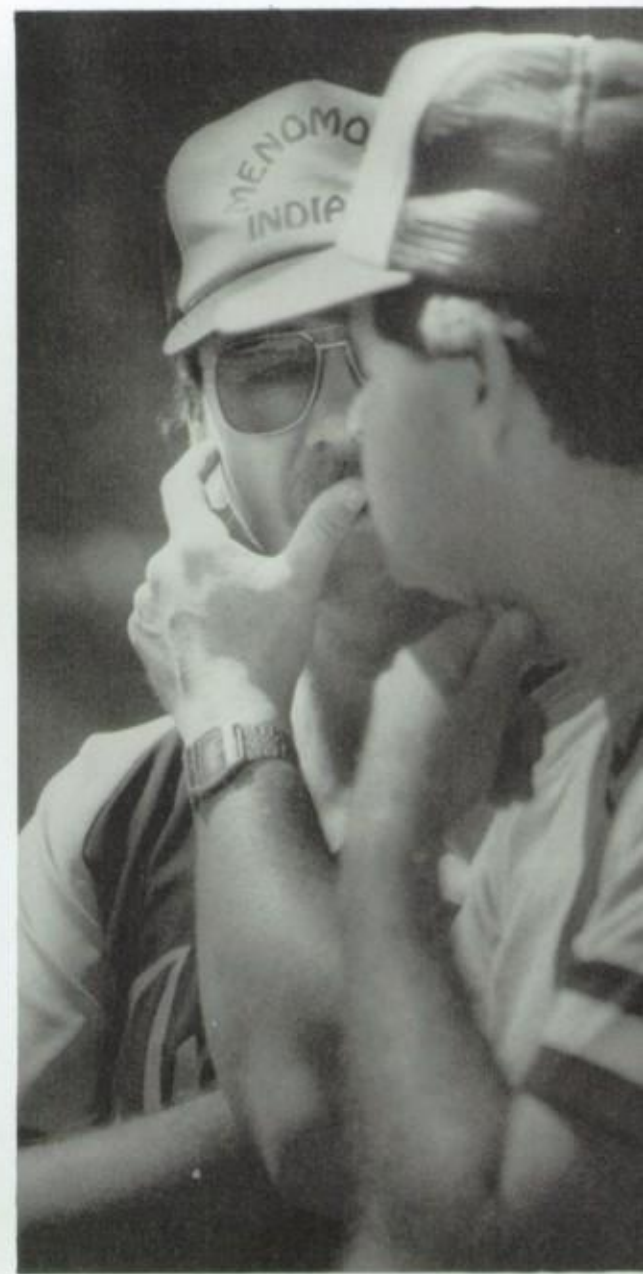

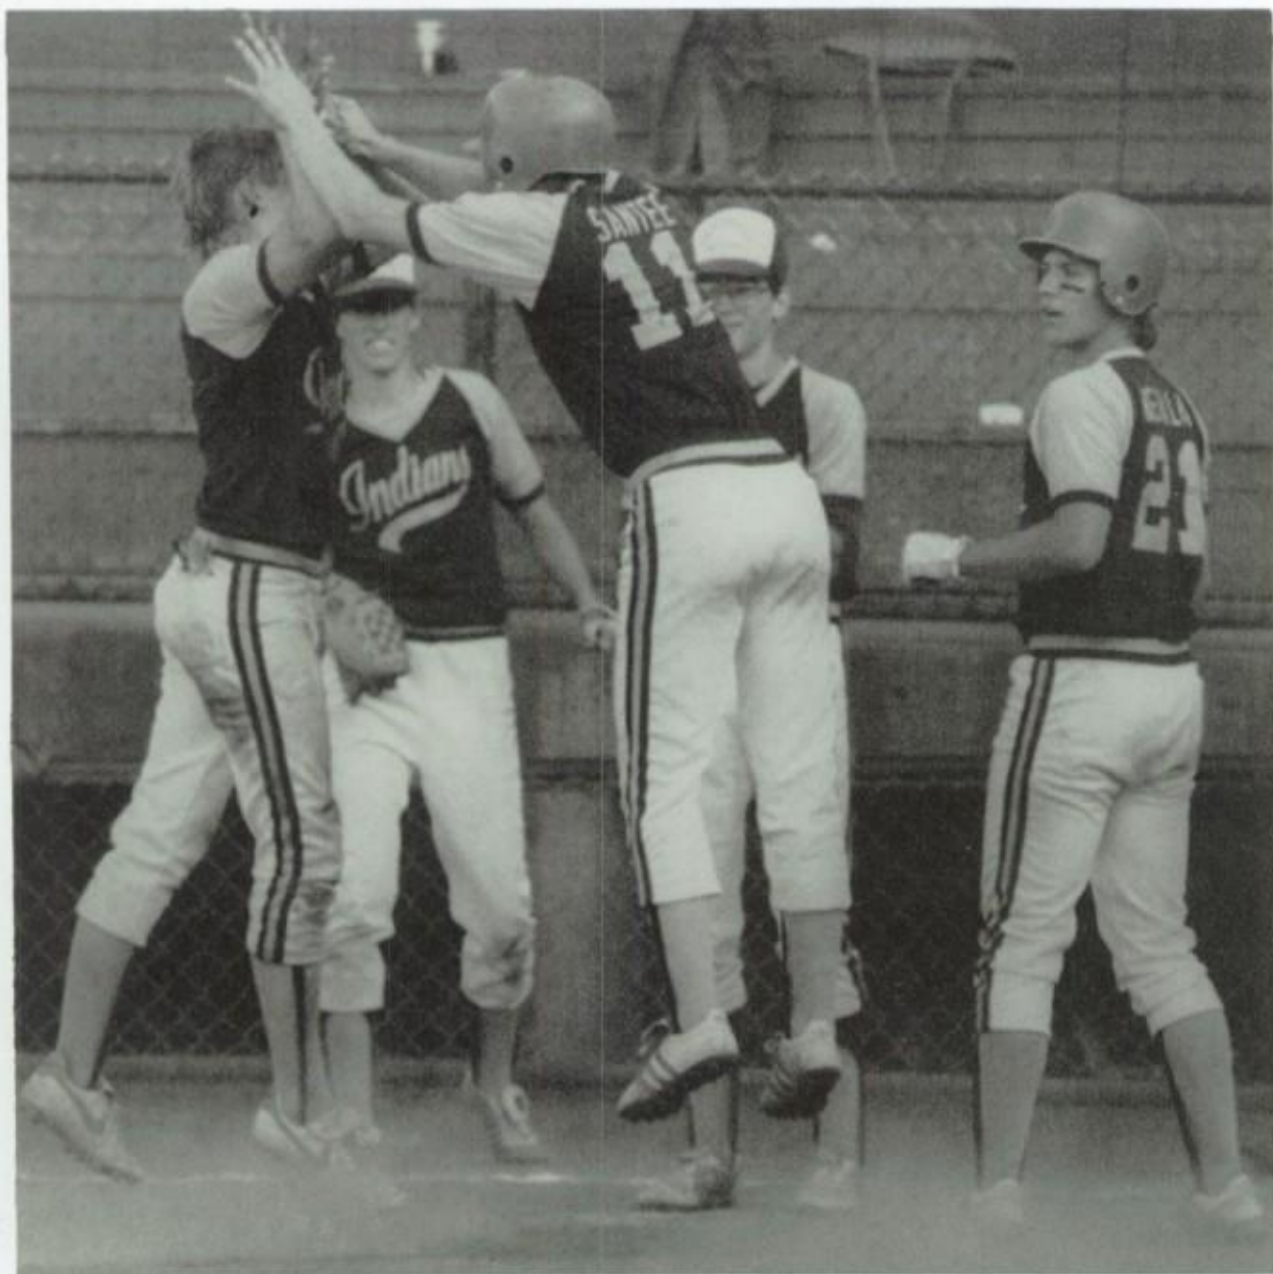

Staying a step ahead is a goal of Kristi Noye. Graceful landings reward Christi Ocholi.

Taking a corner in stride is all in a day's work for Sue Henderson.
A light touch allows Elizabeth Hoyt a chance to study the next hurdle.
With determination in her eyes, Linnae Frank knows what she is doing.

J.V. Boy Batters

The J.V. Boys Baseball team showed considerable improvement throughout this season. They played better defensively the second half of the season with Mike Jax being the leading hitter and Trent Petrie scoring the most runs. High batting averages were achieved by Tom Hatfield with .320 and Trent Petrie going a .365. Most runs batted in went to Tom Hatfield with 12. With Mike Hardy and Dave Schermerhorn catching, Brent McCloud in right field, and Dale Fizel, Curt Hintzman, and Micah Goetl providing field expertise, the games went on. Brad White and Paul Wurtz gave spirit to the season so most of these players will be seen in action again next season. Coach Dick Smith extracted much dedication and effort from these men and looks forward to another year of exemplary play from the J.V. Baseball team. Well done!!

Attitude is important as players Collin Sleichert, Scott Nelson, Scott Santee, Matt Rust, and Jon Nevala demonstrate.

Coaches Smith and Nevala question their winning game strategy. With the ball safe in hand, Matt Rust gets his man out.

Baseball Draws Awards

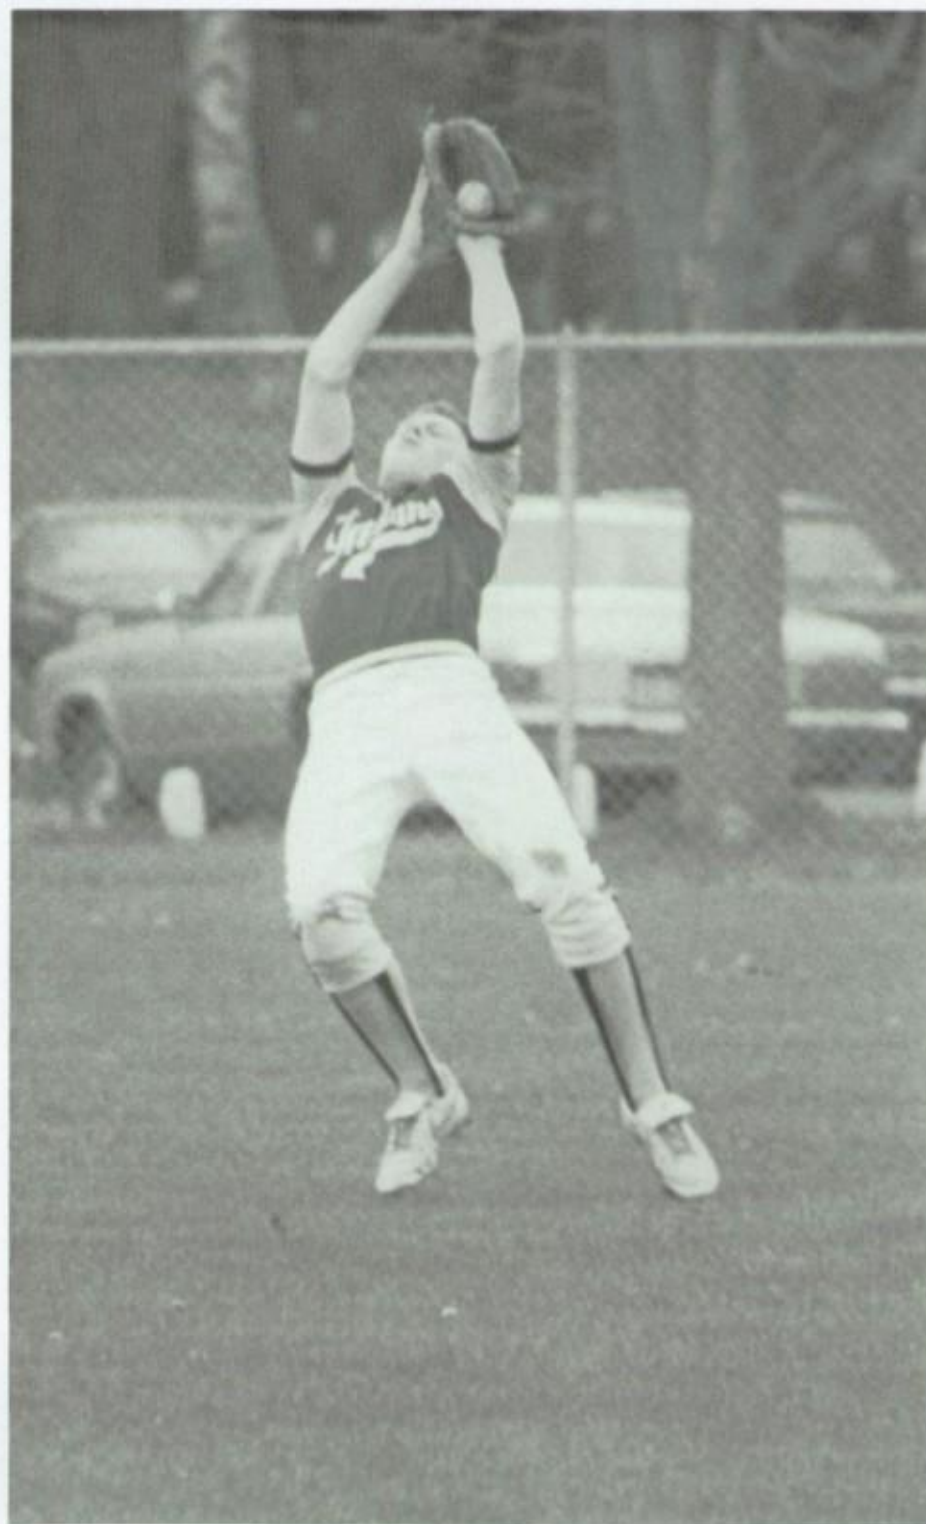

The season began with four senior players who showed considerable leadership. Three year lettermen, Jon Nevala and Chris Helixon were joined by fellow seniors Scott Nelson and Scott Santee. The juniors were Chris Bowman, Matt Barnard, Travis Glampe, Colin Sleichert, Matt Rust, Jerry Larkin, Eric Klopp, Scott Weber, and Jeff Oas. As the season progressed the team responded with a 3-7 Big Rivers Conference record which gave MHS a fourth place tie in the Conference. The season record ended at 6-10.

In tournament games MHS qualified for sectionals by beating River Falls, and Jon Nevala was named "Best Offensive Player" and Chris Helixon "Best Defensive Player". In further play, according to Coach Nevala, Menomonie beat Superior and went against a tough Chippewa Falls team where MHS lost 7-6. Jon Nevala and Matt Barnard were selected to the Big Rivers all-conference team. Colin Sleichert received "honorable mention" to the all conference team. Jon Nevala was selected to represent Menomonie in the Wisconsin Baseball Coaches Association All-Star game later in the summer.

Volleyball Teamwork!

The season began in the usual manner but many surprises were in store for the team. This year became the year of the special serve. More games than ever were scheduled to give the team their best chances to improve their game and they did just that. They were able to capture a second place at the Menomonie Invitational. Just as the momentum was beginning to carry, the unexpected happened when Lori Newman sprained an ankle during a pre-game warm-up. This slowed Lori and team injuries mounted. Mental errors became a factor later in the season as the team worked up its readiness for the Regional tournament. The team took Eau Claire Memorial to three games before falling. This gave the squad a fifth place finish in the Conference and an over all record of 3-7. The team gained some new dimensions this season in that many tried new positions. With the ever-present good attitude of the team and coaches, the experiences of this fall's volleyball season will not soon be forgotten.

Cross Country Comments

What team travels thirty miles a week through all kinds of weather? Day after day, the cross-country team runs from five to six miles. One team member stated, "We worked hard to achieve our goals and we definitely need credit for that."

Led by junior captain Margaret Larson, the girls compiled a record of 48-46. This included respectable finishes of third in Conference and sixth in Sectionals. Although the team was small in numbers and very inexperienced, they more than made up for it with the hard work and determination. Special awards were for Laurie Wolfe as "Best Team Runner," and Margaret Larson as "Outstanding Runner."

The season saw the boys team compile a record of 56 wins and 53 losses. The squad was led by junior captains Matt Flug and Scott Wheeler. The noted awards went to senior Mike Leach as "Most Valuable Performer," and Scott Wheeler earned an all-conference honor by placing sixth overall at the Big Rivers conference meet in LaCrosse.

Walking Like Egyptians?

Pom Pon tried something new this year-joint football half-time shows with the marching band. The cooperative effort was a success.

Highlight performances during the basketball season were prop routines such as "Walk like an Egyptian" and "Nutcracker Suite Christmas Dance."

The most exciting event by far was qualifying for the NCA National Competition in Anaheim, California. The squad traveled there on December 31, 1986 to represent Wisconsin at the competition.

Individual girls earned honors and traveled to foreign countries for performing tours. Robin Ebert and Laura Wyss traveled to Ireland and England. Julie Brenhofer and Robin Ebert performed in Hong Kong over spring break.

During the Homecoming Parade the Pom Pon group's front line consists of Shelly Schutt, Julie Brennhoffer, Julie Kingzett, and Robin Ebert.

"Walking Like an Egyptian" is part of Julie Hoepner's Pom Pon routine.

Hoyt Swims To State!

Bang! The sound of the starting gun echoes off the pool walls. The girls spring from the blocks and a split second later, the calm water beneath them is broken. In this manner, the Girls' Swim Team season begins.

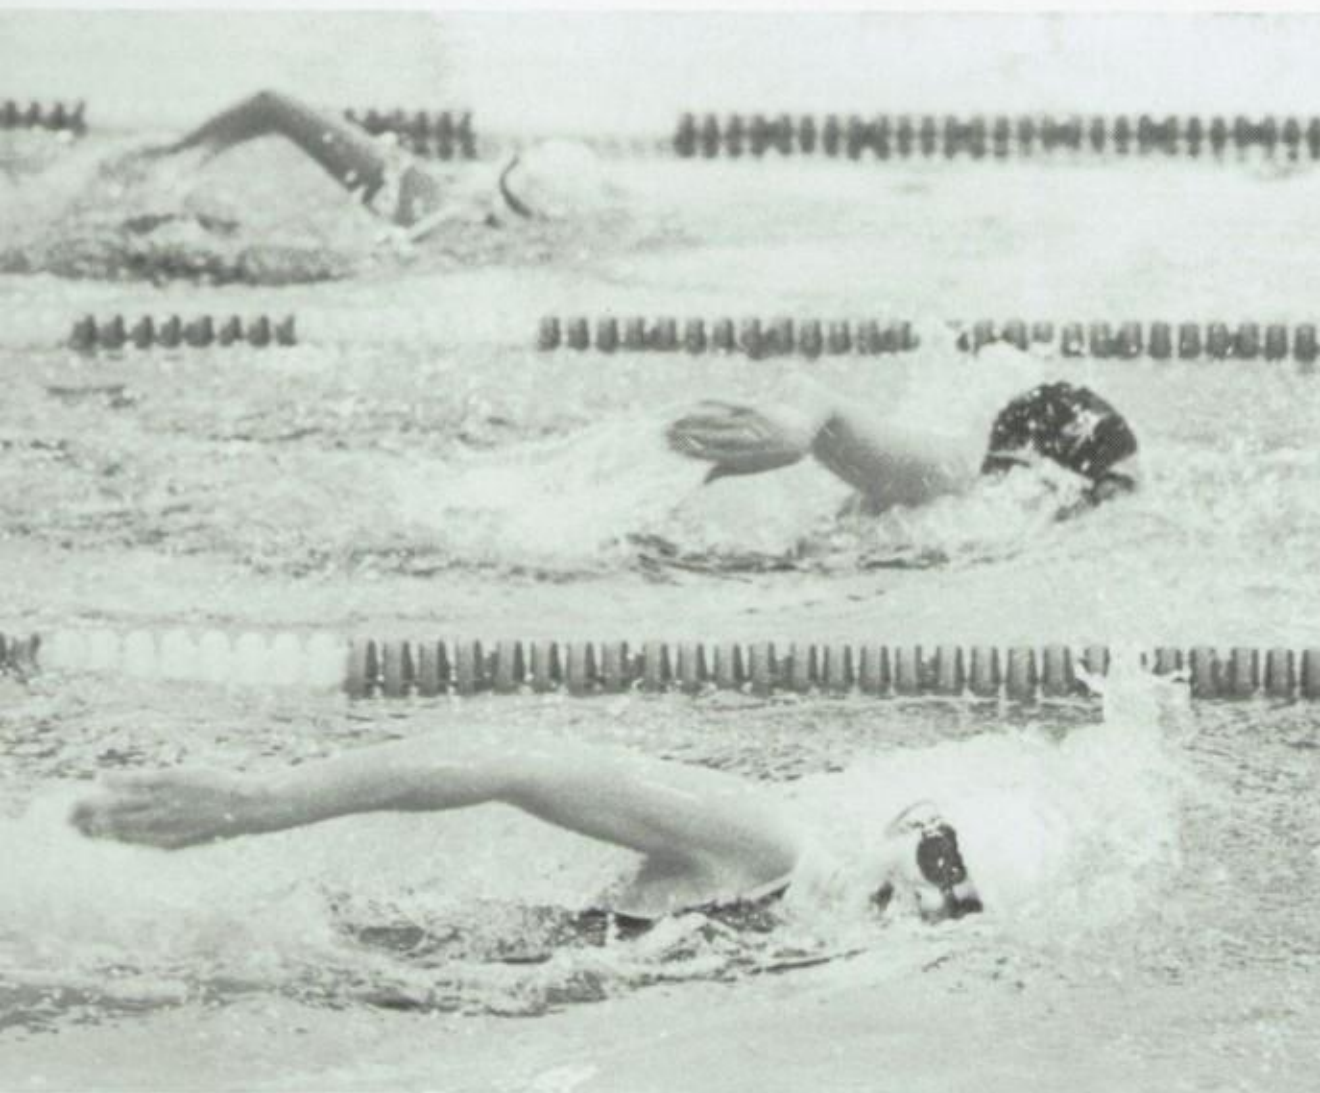

Much hard work goes into every meet. Coach Mueller works the girls hard and has them do endless numbers of laps. According to the team, swimming is the hardest fall sport, even harder than football. The swim team also has the longest season.

All the hard work was worth it when it is time for meets. Much tension and excitement was felt by all the team members. This year's slogan, "Go Animal!", reflects the team feeling that the swimmers are special.

A fourth place in the conference didn't separate the team; it brought them closer together. To top off an already long but successful season, Elizabeth Hoyt represented Menomonie at the State meet. In the spirit of the team, "togetherness is what got them there!"

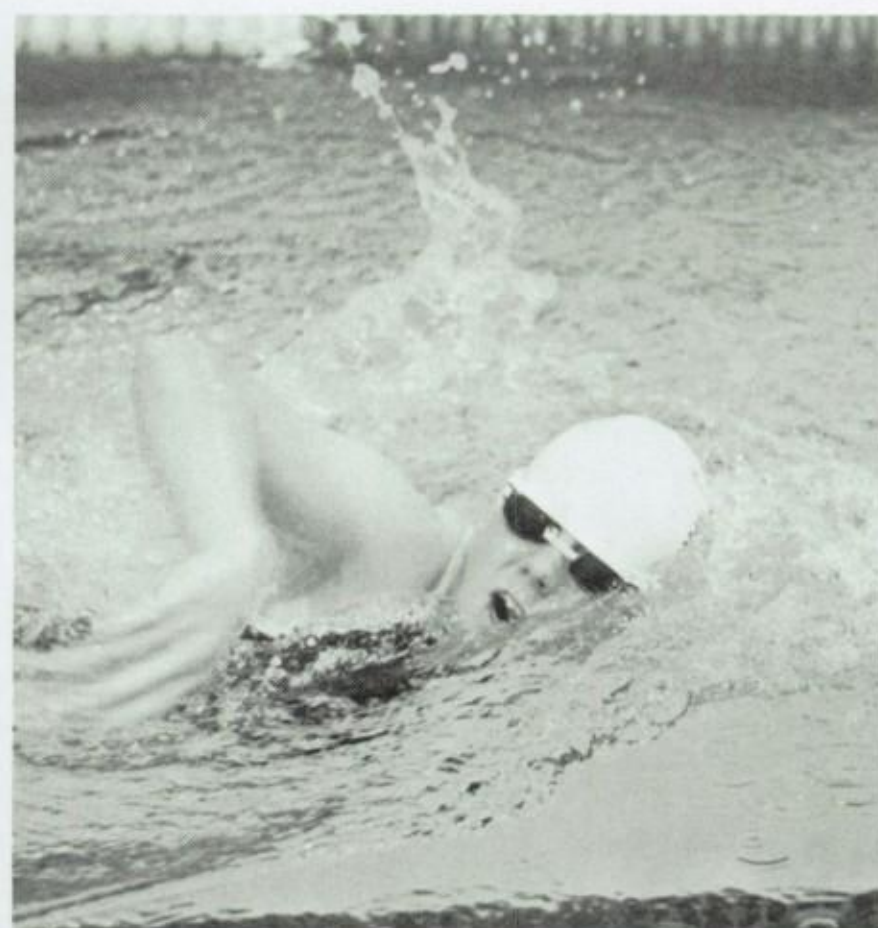

First Row: Kim Macklin, Rebecca Weidner, Sue Pershern, Gina Wood, Elizabeth Hoyt, Meg Moseler, Maria Moseler, Second Row: Hanna Wik, Whitney Meier, Liz Sawin, Susan Stahl, Kari Bertelson, Tammy Swenson, Amy Leff. A dedicated Maria Moseler takes the strokes in stride, even in the water. Relays find Susan Stahl perched and ready to begin her round.

The 500 is a favorite event for Kristin Krueger and Meg Moseler.

As a freshman, Rebecca Weidner's success in the 500 shows promise of great years ahead.

The 100 yard breast stroke is one of the team's most successful as Liz Sawin shows.

Camping Out

The cheerleaders went to camp this summer in River Falls and came back with new chants, cheers and a pom pon routine. They learned a routine to a fight song and for the final examination, they chose some favorites from each of the categories and did very well. They felt the staff at the cheerleading camp was exceptional and due to the success of the experience, they became closer as a squad. The captains of the squads for J.V. this year were Robin Mahan and Jamie Brown for football; Jamie Brown for boy's basketball; and Robin Mahan for girl's basketball.

Row 1: Erin Lowery, Cindy Werner, Row 2: Janell Fizel, Liisa Maki, Robin Mahan, Heather Johnson, Shawn Underwood, and Jamie Brown.

The varsity basketball cheering squad this year season found Julianne Hastings, Carolyn Zengel, Racquel Buckley, Julie Long, and Mary Jo Wagner, having the best time ever.

When a game is in progress, there are always a few distractions for Racquel Buckley, Carolyn Zengel, and Julianne Hastings.

Cheering Newcomers

This year was unique for the cheerleaders for several reasons. The first unusual incident occurred when the group went out to decorate the homes of the football players with the usual white paper. They did a terrific job only to find out on their return home, that the football players had done the same to them and decorated their yards and houses. Another unusual happening was that it rained at practically every home game. In the injuries department, one cheerleader pulled some ligaments in her elbow and another girl hurt her ankle. One member summed it up this way, "As a squad, we had a lot of new people. They caught on really fast and did a super job. We all worked well together and had a great season. I will miss it." These words only came from one member but they sound like they represent the feelings of an entire squad. From squad advisor Ms. Stratton, "It was a very spirited year."

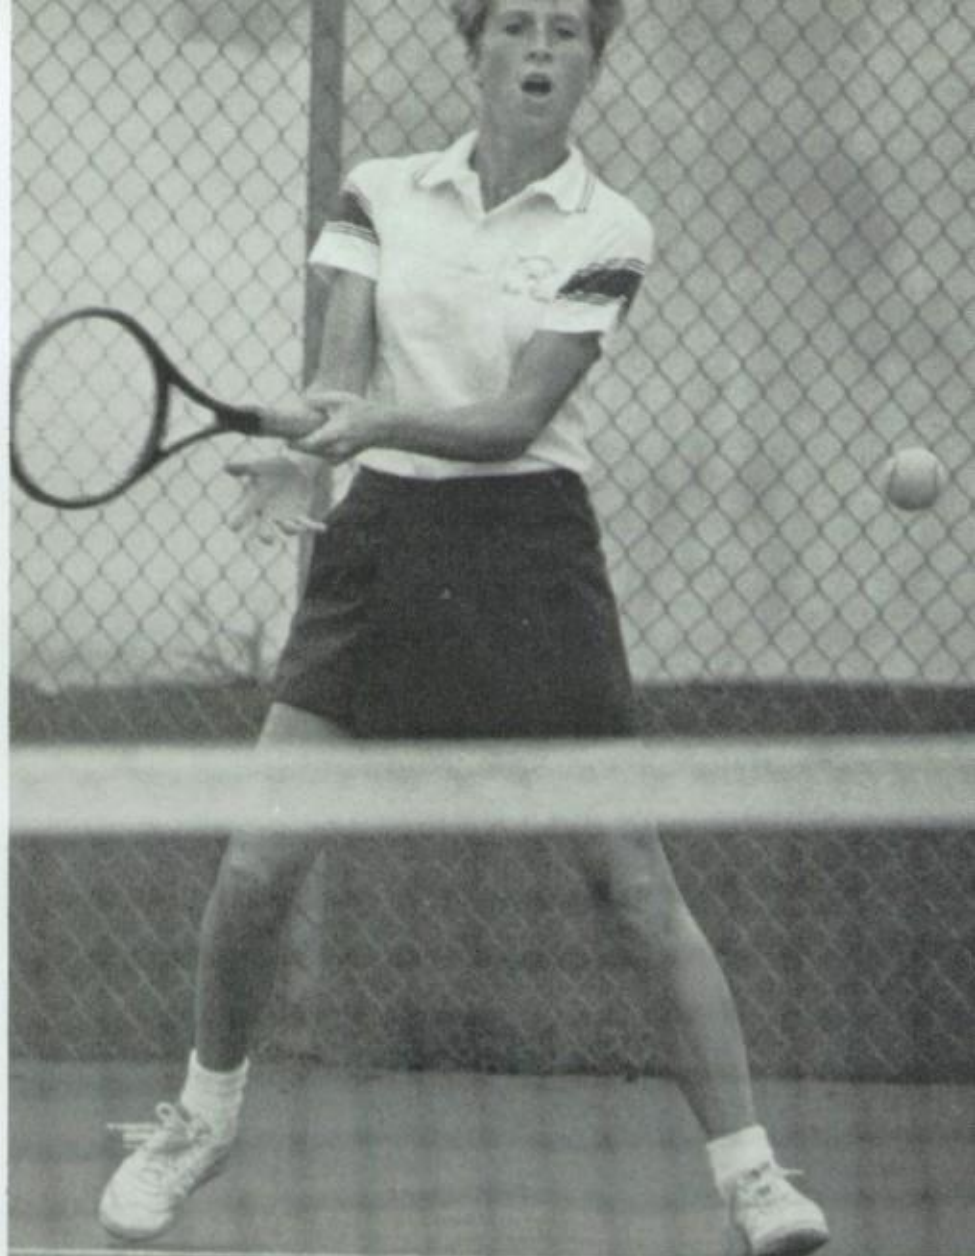

The wrestling cheerleaders always have a plan as does Lisa Henderson, Hope Hansen, and Laura Mattern.

Homecoming routines demand the concentration of Jamie Stoudt and Liisa Maki.

Fun is a requirement of football cheerleaders Jamie Stoudt, Julianne Hastings, Racquel Buckley, and Jenny Baier.

These hockey cheerleaders, Jamie Stoudt, Kristin Hendrickson, Janel Smith, Julie Nelson and Liz Sawin, accept cold weather sports as fun.

New Tennis Coach

The girls tennis team found Dave Barnard as their coach this year. He proved to be an excellent coach who stressed good mental attitudes along with the basic strokes.

Depth was an asset this year as any of the top six could have switched spots. The team record was 20-2 with a second place in Conference to tie Eau Claire Memorial, which could be considered a moral victory. Sue Keil, Martha Jacobs and Carrie Kell qualified for state, which was good considering most state participants come from schools with year-round facilities.

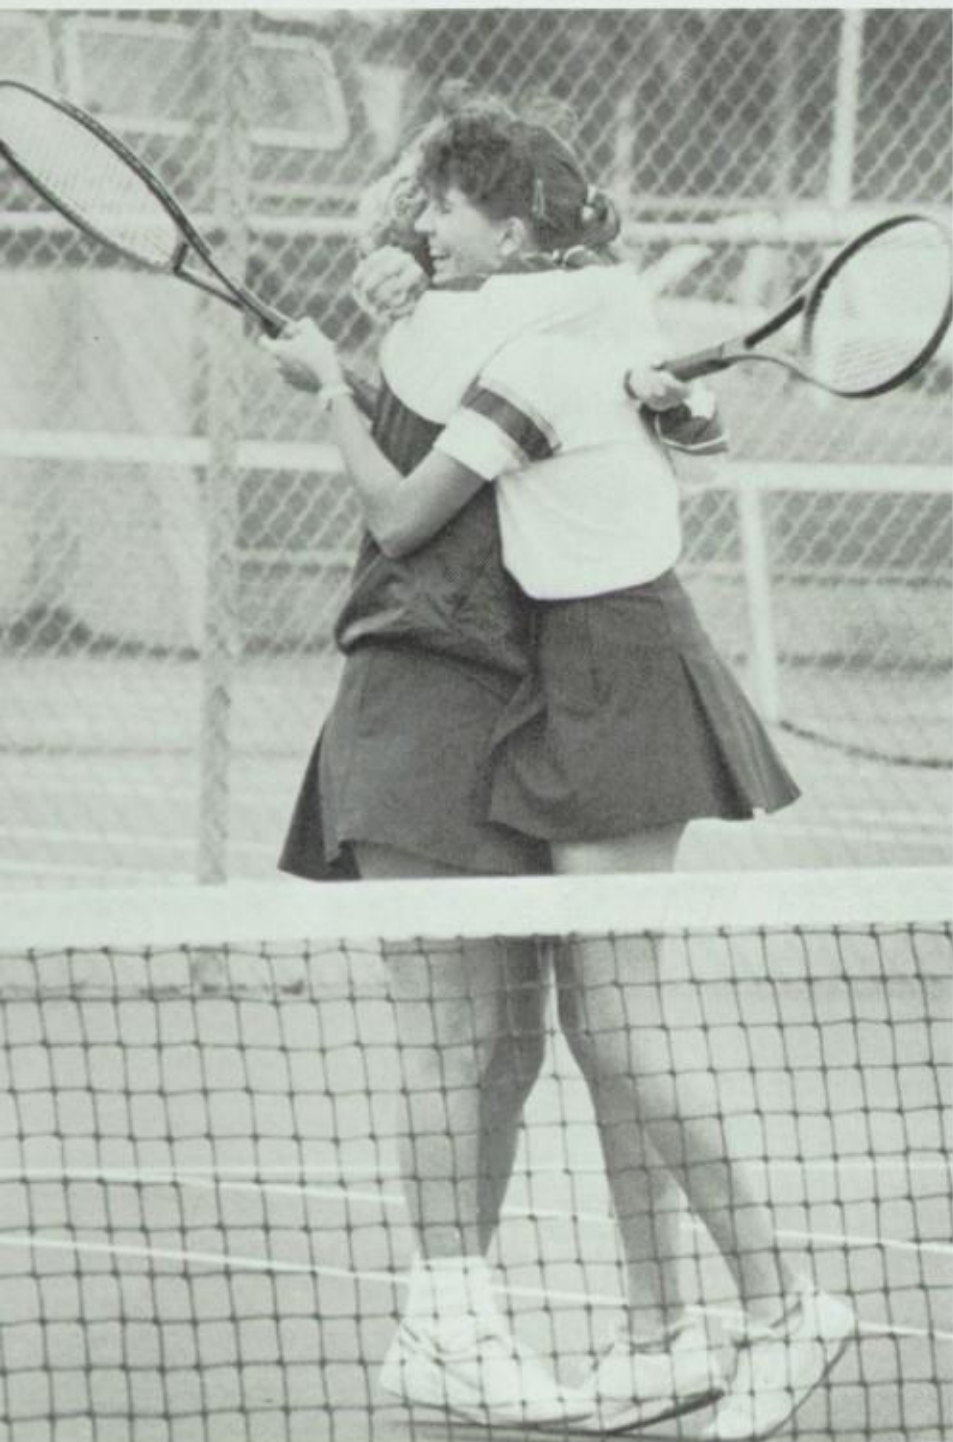

The conditioning was tough! Team members ran lines, sprints, drills, and more drills. The team became very close this season. The support by each player made this season what it was; a success.

Football's Future

Successful seasons were the rule for the underclass football teams as they all posted winning records. The J.V. team came off with a 4-2 record, the sophomores were 5-2 and the freshmen were undefeated at 5-0-2.

Highlights of the Junior Varsity year came as they beat both Eau Claire teams, beating Memorial 20-8 and North 34-0. Eric Siler scored two touchdowns against LaCrosse Logan. Roland Augustin led the team in rushing and Shad Miland led the team in receiving. Rich Olson was awarded the title of "most consistent."

Sophomores did well as some of the players saw varsity action as well as many on J.V. Sophomore Bruce Platter moved to varsity as their starting quarterback.

The only blemishes on a near perfect record for the freshmen team were ties with Durand and Eau Claire South. Looking ahead, coach Stratton stated, "The future looks bright with these prospects."

Varsity Football Success

What was supposed to be a rebuilding year for a young, varsity football team turned into a successful, championship contending team. The squad became noted for their opportunistic attitude for making use of recovered fumbles, interceptions, and short field goal attempts by the opposition as they rolled to a 7-2 record and second in the conference.

Eric Gabriel got the Indians going in the first game when he picked up a fumble and ran 47 yards for a touchdown. Gabriel finished second in the conference with four interceptions and also won the game against Memorial by running a short Memorial field goal attempt 97 yards for the only touchdown of the game.

Chris Bowman, the Indian's Mr. Everything, excelled on defense with timely tackles and interceptions to lead the conference with 72 points and rushing with 921 yards. Bowman was named All Conference Most Valuable Player, All Conference Running Back, and named as a defensive player to the All Region Football Team.

Joining Bowman on the All Conference Team were Jeff Oas, Sam Ebute, Dave Engeldinger, Joel Kuester, Mike Lawrence, and Chris Heymans. Receiving "honorable mention" were Steve Radtke, Colin Sleichert, Eric Gabriel, Jim Neubauer and Mike Noreen.

I can't promise the world, but this is a fun bunch and I expect them to do well," stated Hockey Coach Roethke. The team had a few problems this season due to the warm weather and mainly the fact that Menomonie's ice was unsuitable for practice and games. Hopes were high with the returning lettermen and confident captains. Kurt Rudiger, Paul Wurtz, Bruce Platter, Trent Petrie, and Ben Walter stood out as aggressive team members. One of the most exciting games was played against top ranked Hayward. The Indians frequently captured the lead but were unable to remain on top. Pressing Prospects

Coach Jeff Hastings was quick to respond when asked about the prospects for his team this season. "They all look like great ballplayers." The thirteen girls each contributed their specific strengths to the total effort of the team. One of the major goals is to prepare the team for varsity next year. The emphasis this year was pressing and defense. Girls contributing much this year were Allison Baker, Karen Bresson, Karla Sipple, Brook Bundy and Beth Enestevdt. They are the girls we'll see on the varsity courts tomorrow.

Run, But Don't Travel

Odd as it may sound, it is possible to run without traveling. This technique is second nature to the Girl's Varsity Basketball team.

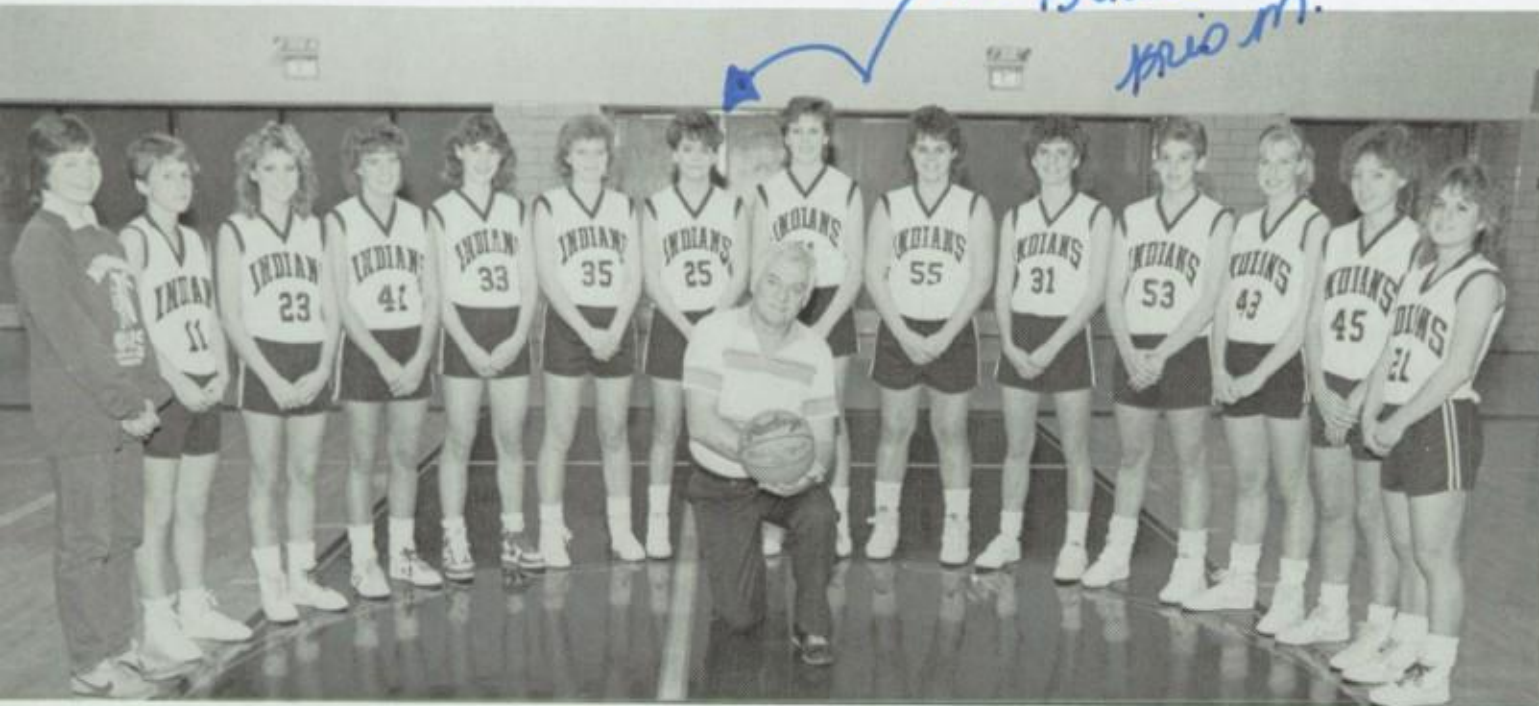

Returning seniors were Joyce Halama and Kris Moegenberg. Newcomers included sophomores Brook Bundy and Polly Hughes. The old and the new mixed well to produce a defensively great team.

Even though the season was not all victories, they played tough battles with the Eau Claire teams. Moreover, four of the teams they played ranked in the top ten of the state.

One of the highlights of the season occurred during the first game against Central. Brook Bundy forced the teams into overtime and cut a 13 point deficit just barely missing a win.

Having a long season lasting nearly four months the girls had their work cut out for them. Overall, Coach Helixon was really pleased with their hustle and drive.

Wrestling Numbers Grow

With an additional year of experience behind them, a young Menomonie team looked for improvement. The team consisted of twenty-nine hopefuls all trying to win a starting spot. The breakdown as it related to classes found four seniors, seven juniors, eleven sophomores and seven freshmen. "This year we have strength in our sophomores plus maturity in the juniors and healthy kids back who were hurt last year," said Coach Soeldner. Highlights of the year included 145 lb. Sam Schackleton placing third at the 32 team Badger Invitational, heavyweight Brent McLeod capturing second at Chetek's Invitational, and Matt Schiotz winning the 105 weight class at the Rice Lake tournament.

Gymnastic Moments

A unique coaching approach combined with the return of 11 letter winners provided Menomonie Indian fans with an exciting season. The uniqueness of the coaching approach of veteran Coach Stokes combined this season with two fine individuals, Mike and Cindy Beaupre. Mike is a former All-American gymnast from UW-Stout.

The team had a great season and hit a high score of 92.46 at an eight team invitational putting them in second place and missing first by three tenths of a point. The varsity team consisted of Jill Kadinger, Julie Kingzett, Maria Moseler, Jackie Pax, Mary Schumacher, Betsy Smith, Teresa Stokes, and Mary Kay Zengel. In the Junior Varsity competition outstanding performers were Meg Moseler, Jenny Hoffman, Becky Schumacher, Dawn Buerke, and Liisa Maki.

With captain Jackie Pax, and co-captain Mary Kay Zengel leading the MHS Gymnasts and returning sectional qualifier Teresa Stokes the team looked confident and strong. With half the season finished, they had a season record of eight wins and two losses. Great job, girls!

Jackie Pax points out which team is number one during her floor routine. Taking a flying leap, Tammy Schlough prepares for a handspring off the vault.

Swim Team

A fresh start is in the wave for the boy's swim team. This year, they have a new coach- Mr. Pat Mueller. Previously, Mueller had coached the girl's team, and is now tackling this assignment of heading the boys' program.

The team is rather small this year, since it lost many seniors. There are only seventeen members. They have many talented swimmers and divers. Mueller feels that the newly-elected co-captains, B.J. Kroma and Nick Vranak are the strongest swimmers on the team. B.J. Kroma, a junior, has qualified for state twice. Nick Vranak, the sole senior, has been a team powerhouse for some time, and has much endurance. Both Kroma and Vranak qualified for state.

The divers are a sometimes neglected part of a team. Occasionally, they are overlooked. This year, the team has three divers: returning junior, Lewis Anderson, a top diving prospect, and equally talented sophomores Joe Muenich and Mike Hardy.

The team's season kicked off by a win over River Falls in November.

Netting Success!

The J.V. Boys' team worked on several emphases this season. Their fast break improved this year along with the team speed. Early in the season the J.V.'s had posted a 2-1 record. With that success and their aggressive defense the season only got better. Coach Peterson started a system of alternating team captains. Shad Miland and Rich Olson played on both J.V. and Varsity teams. The squad's versatility really paid off.

isn't he beautiful?* →

A quick turn by Pete Weber gives him needed space to play ball. Mike Jax provides just the opening Mike Wittlinger needs to get Memorial's player off his back.

Two points in the making as Rich Olson goes up and makes it against Memorial.

Pete Weber makes his free throw under the watchful eye of Mike Miller.

Memorial's man isn't fast enough to stop our own Mike Miller.

Indian strategy is planned by Colin O'Neil, Mike Noreen, Tony Kothlow, and Brant Moegenburg.

"Gunner" Jim Gundlach goes up for two and makes it against Antigo.

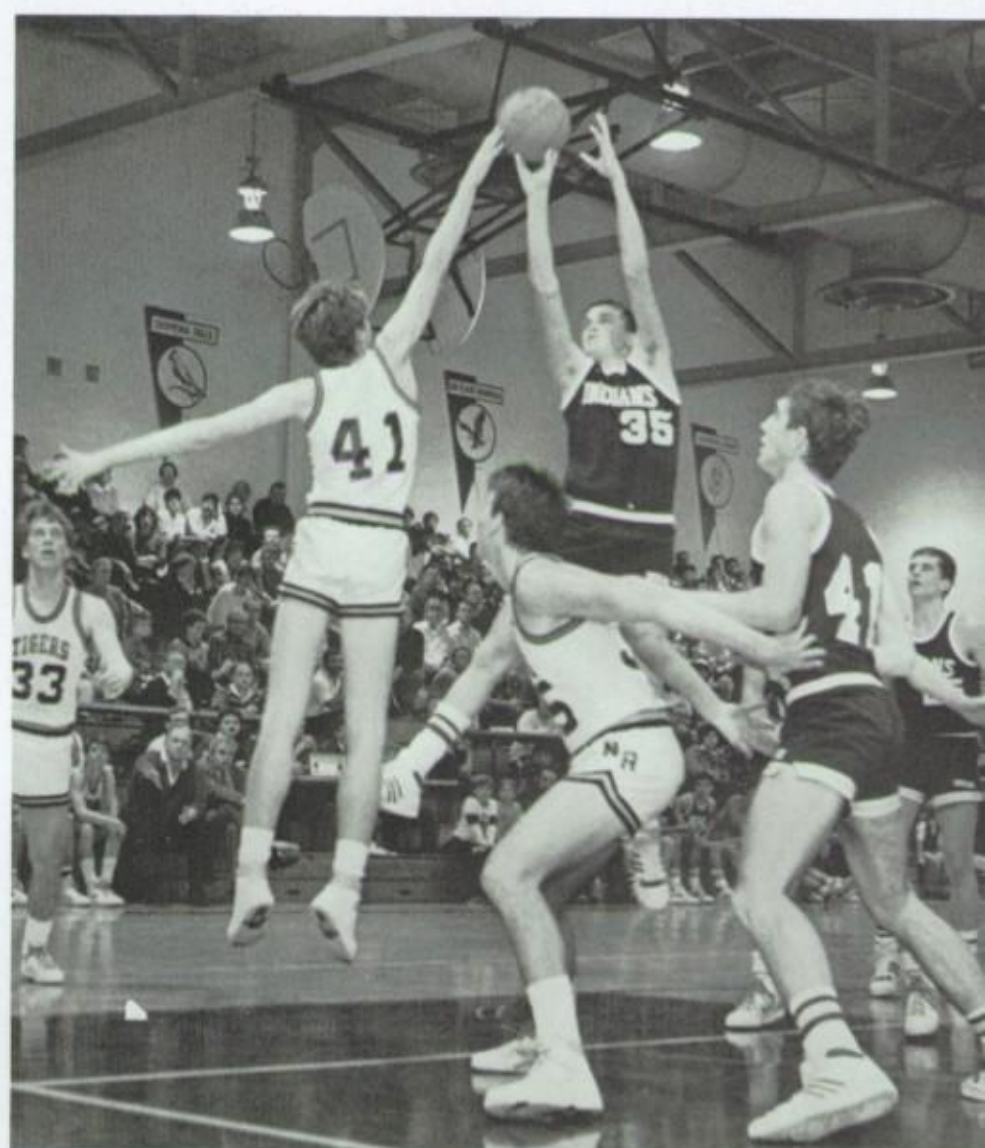

New Richmond's center is unable to stop the completion of Brant Moegenburg's perfect shot.

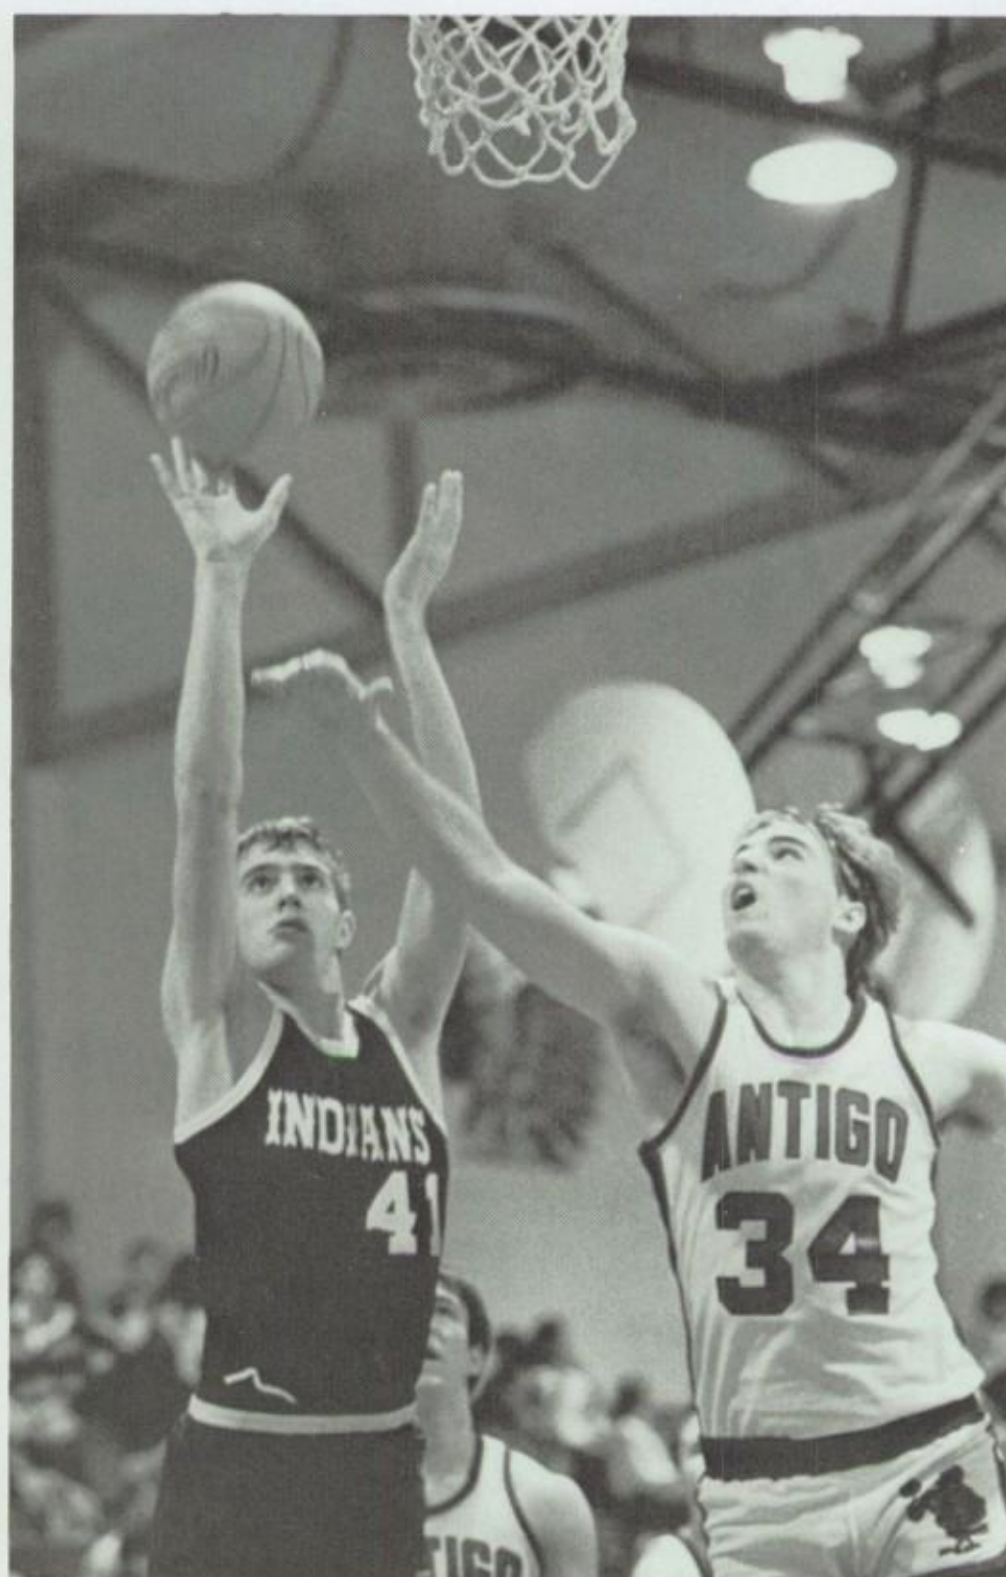

Youthful Cagers

What the boy's varsity basketball team lacks in experience, they make up for in excitement and potential. The team fielded returning center Colin O'Neil under the basket. Forwards Brant Moegenburg and Tony Kothlow returned as did Matt Barnard and Mike Noreen, who brought the ball up the court. Sophomores Scott Ebert and Todd Leipnitz and seniors Mike Lawrence and Jim Gundlach came off the bench.

Due to their lack of varsity experience, Coach Schrantz's charges played inconsistently, but aggressively, throughout the season. Some highlights included Tony Kothlow's half-court shot at the buzzer to send the first Durand game into overtime, avenging last year's loss to New Richmond and beating a physical Antigo team.

Todd Leipnitz successfully blocks a shot by Memorial's Joel Brettinger.

Antigo's number thirty-four was fast enough but lacked the height to stop Colin O'Neil.

Hot Off The Press

What was the hottest new publication? What else? "The Senior Newsletter." It offered up-to-date scholarship information along with other timely senior items. Also at hand were the faithful counselors, two who were new: Ms. Crownhart and Mrs. Slauson. They rapidly became acquainted with seniors frequenting their offices.

Providing graduate and post-secondary information, ACT/SAT tutorial programs, as well as scholarship applications helped to make the Guidance office the senior hang out.

The year was full of opportunities. Seniors were taken to UW Eau Claire to attend the Education Fair where Midwestern college and military representatives were available for students to talk with. The annual Career Fair brought the usual enthusiasm and many students seized the opportunity to take Stout classes. Heather Hildebrandt said of the split campus program, "It is a great opportunity for me because it will help me when I go to college full-time."

Whatever their plans, a job, technical or college schooling, seniors experienced mixed emotions as graduation drew near. Anticipation, excitement, frustration, depression, and fear were just a few. Spring fever combined with the ever-present "senioritis" made the last few weeks seem unending.

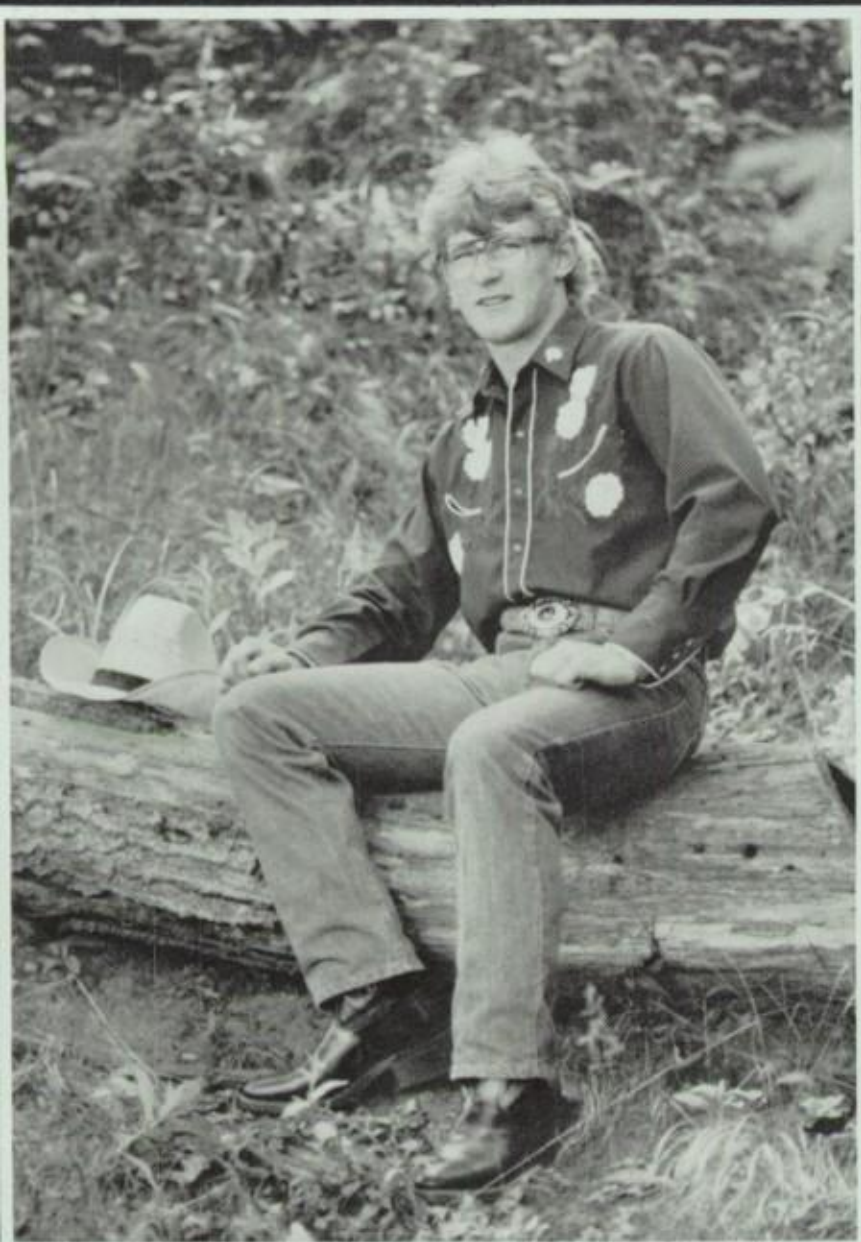

In spite of all the stress, college applications were mailed and money for the future was diligently saved and when it was all over, they cried for the loss of those simpler, happy times . . . and smiled at the future.

Physics students Jason Yancey, Cherie Martin, Sue Keil, Roger Gehring, and Jeff Burgfechtel ponder an intense problem.

Senior class officers: Jerry Larkin-President, Ann Larson-Secretary, Pam Willow-Treasurer, Bill Neuenfeldt-Vice President.

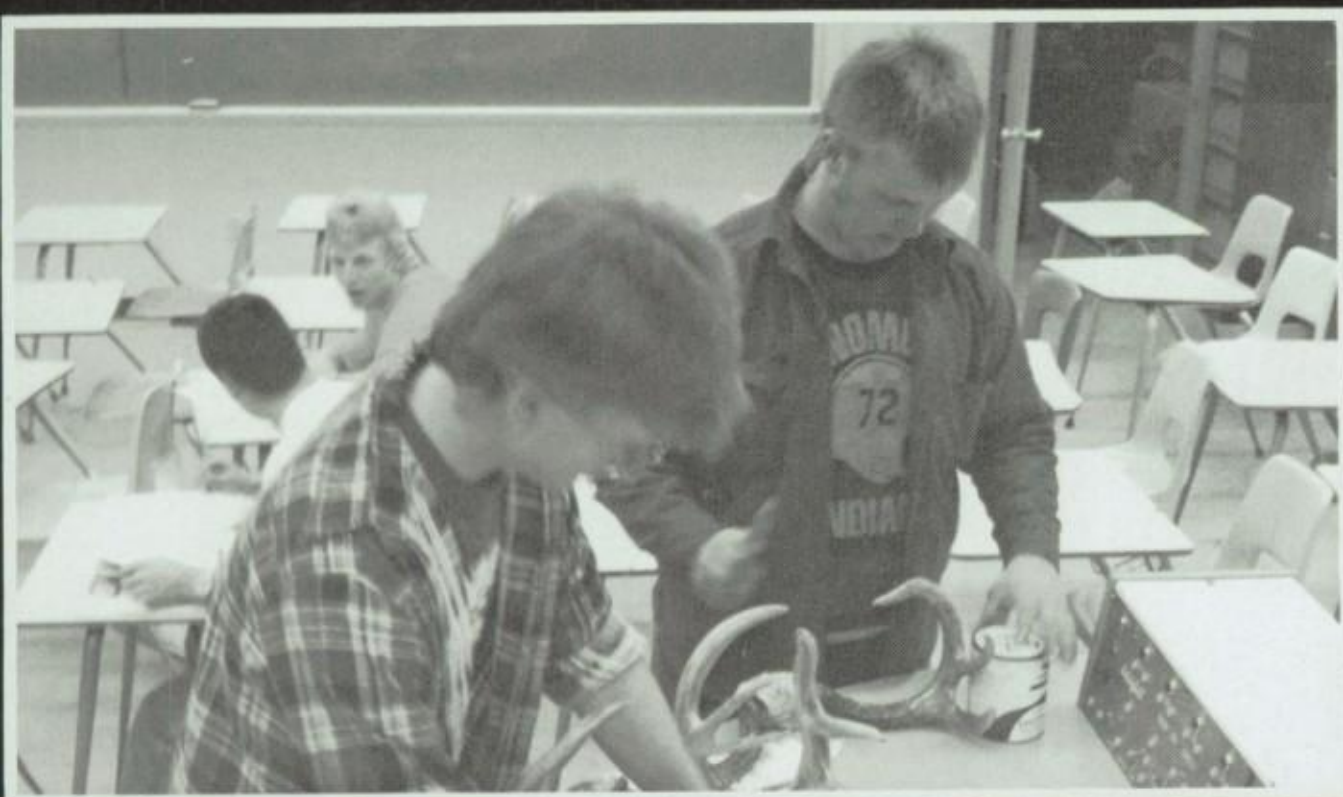

Tribute To A Friend

Why did this have to happen
With your whole life yet to live,
So many hopes and dreams,
So much of yourself to give?

Your family and friends will have to go on Living from day to day,
And we will always remember you,
Each in our own special way.

Your smile will always be with us,
Your friendship will always be there,
You will never be forgotten,
As much as everyone cares.

Written by Chad Schutts

Friends Troy Hein and Chad Schutts continue their work in Todd's favorite vocational classes.

The Junior Life

The junior year is one of constantly changing priorities. Just when students were finally learning to control their world as "semi-cool sophomores", along comes that junior year complete with hard courses, plans for college, entrance exams, and career worries. In spite of it all, the eleventh grade rises to the spirit of the occasion and finds, for the most part anyway, that even though this may be the hardest year, it is also the best yet! The sophomores note that "this year's juniors act so mature," that it frightens even them because if they're not careful, they'll be next year's juniors and almost grown up.

The junior year is so full of tension that Laura Mattern takes a moment to laugh at her plight.

Junior Blood!

One of the biggest changes in the junior year is that for the first time, the students are treated like adults. One of these adult-like activities is being able to give their blood in the Red Cross Blood Drive that comes to the school each year. This year there were blood donors galore with more than usual numbers of students willing to go through the process. The junior response was overwhelming. "It was something we could do of a positive nature," stated one junior on the day of the Drive. The juniors feel that they have only one year left and if they are ever going to have a positive impact, now is the time. Great going juniors!

Several students pooled their resources to build a skateboard ramp so Jeremy Serwer gave it the ultimate test.

Pocket Jingles

With one year tucked safely beneath their belt, sophomores walked around with newfound confidence. Much of their pride was a result of knowing that car keys would soon jingle in their pockets. In addition, sophomores placed their class ring orders and anxiously awaited the arrival of their prized symbols of maturity. Yet another facet of the sophomore's life was the completion of Speech class. Many who tried to avoid it, found instead that it was really fun.

Happiness is having a good day as shown by Eun Lee.

New Faces

Every year brings new faces to any school but this year there have been a large number of new sophomores. What concerned them most before they arrived was "what will they think of me?" Most find a warm welcome right away, but for those who are not so outgoing, the many activities the school offers seem to be just the icebreaker needed. As time goes along, most new students say "We feel right at home!"

Even sophomores deserve to look around if even for a moment as Julie Kingzett and Lisa Ellison have their attentions distracted.

To Be A Freshman!

Look in the shadow of any upperclassman and you will find at least two freshmen. The new arrivals know that they need to watch and listen in order to stay out of danger from any upper class eyes that might be casting their direction. This year's group have openly stated "in three more years we'll be seniors so why worry?" In spite of that spirit of self-assurance, the freshmen wish that the upperclassmen would remember, "Hey, you guys were once freshmen too and not very long ago at that!" Some things never change!

Freshman Fun!

The Freshman class traditionally is not a strong contender for the winner in any sort of class competition. This year's class has proved to be unique in their spirit as they carried away the honors overall in their points for Spirit Week. The freshmen gained points for most participants in Athletic Day, Jailbird Day, and Beach Day. After this, the rest of the week was simple and the newest class, won the coveted award, making this year a great one for Freshman Fun!

"Bye Bye Birdy" could never have come off well without the backstage help of freshman Tasha Jenson.

Painting props is a job that Jenny Passe and Mona Nelson realize must be done to put the show on the road.

On their way out after a hectic day, Tori Miseck and Melisa Partlow find time to pose for a quick picture.

The freshman class puts their efforts into the class skit competition.

Twosomes In Our Midst

Some of you are not aware of the "twosomes" (sometimes "threesomes") that populate school. There's probably one in your midst right now.

The people in question are students and parents who share the same work setting-school. The advantages far outweighed the drawbacks as both students and faculty agreed.

First of all, students felt that some drawbacks were feeling paranoid that their parent was watching them, as well as disappointment that school grade reports are often seen first by their parent. One teacher admitted it was hard to grade objectively with their child was in their class.

And yet there are dozens of favorable happenings among these twosomes. Students had a long list of benefits. Their parents were most helpful when money was needed and when passes were forgotten. Being chauffeured as well as tutored were definite assets. A feeling of security also existed in case of emergency. Peggy Hughes commented "Having my dad in school is special because I get to see how he reacts with different people in different settings."

Parents, on the other hand, liked knowing what really went on in their child's life and were able to talk to teachers about their problem areas. Parents also gather homework for their absent offspring. Both ages especially enjoyed hearing good things about each other.

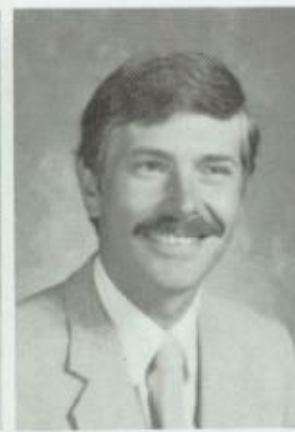

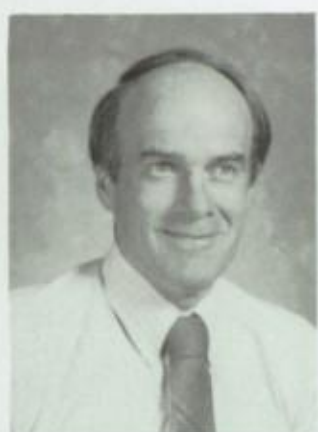

The experience required adjustment, but the twosome's decided that they would not have it any other way.

Advanced Math teacher, Mr. Kieser takes attendance before starting the day's activity.

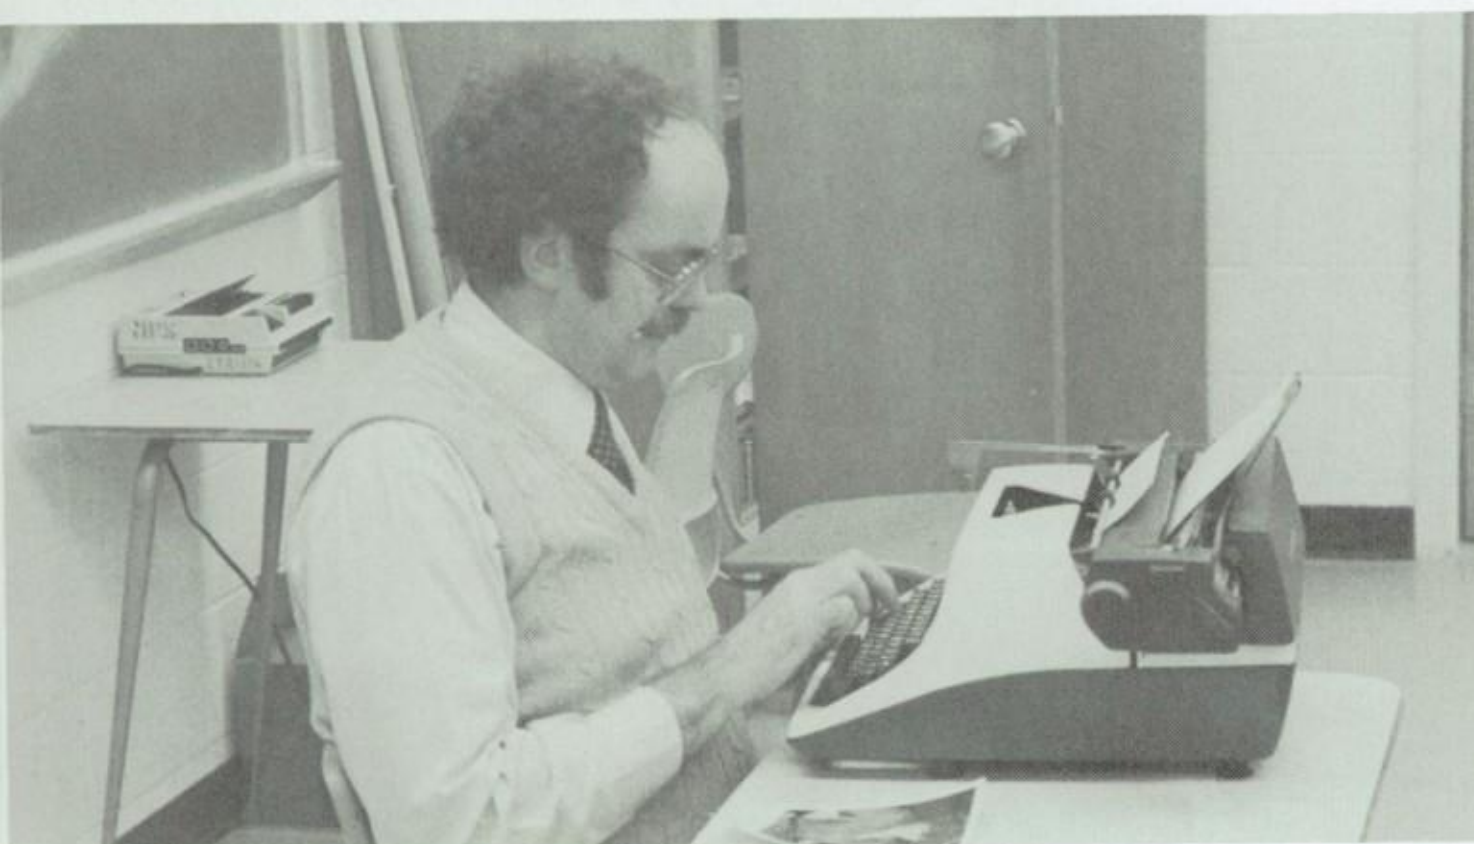

Music's momentum is alive and well with Ms. Karen Peterson directing the daily activities in the vocal music department.

The white lab coat is Dr. Puhl's uniform for proper scientific consultation where students are concerned.

An electric typewriter might prove a bit too fast for Mr. Foxwell's keyboard composition so the manual model may be better.

New Dimensions

Menomonie's businesses are alive and well in the north end, the new east-side area, the shopping centers, downtown and all the surrounding community. (Photo courtesy of Tin-Man Photography.)

"New Dimensions"

Volume 67 of the MENOMIN was published by the members of the yearbook staff at Menomonie Senior High in Menomonie, Wisconsin. The volume was printed by the Jostens Printing and Publishing Division, located in Topeka, Kansas. The sales representative from the Jostens company was Mike Smith of Eau Claire, Wisconsin.

The cover is a school-designed lithographic. The end sheets are of school design, printed on 65 lb. silver paper with a matte finish. The pages are printed on 80 lb. enamel paper and their format is 8 ½ by 11 inches.

All body copy is Korinna type set in 10 point. The captions are set in 8 point; the headlines are set in 24 point.

Many of the photos used were furnished by THE DUNN COUNTY NEWS but staff members took and developed the remainder. The cost of the books were seventeen dollars and seven hundred and seventy-five books were ordered from the company. The MENOMIN might not have been if it were not for the efforts of staff members, students, administration, parents, and community supporters who made this project possible.

New Dimensions

"Crossroads"

An opportunity to stand back, to reflect upon a time passed.
Thinking of other milestonesyour sixteenth birthday, your first date . . .
As you wait at the fork of this road,
you wonder what lies ahead,
beyond the uncertain darkness.
The realization that many will be left in memories
brings with it sad farewells.
Luckily, the ability to move, "onward and upward" will carry you into the future,
and the experiences you've gained will open many doors.
As I watch you choose your path, bear in mind that our relationship will endure the test of time,
as others fade away,
and that my heart travels with you . . . always.
I watch you now, unwrapping yourself in a cloak of courage and excitement, and with startling reality,
I understand that you've led me to a crossroads of my own.

The senior girls get into step as they do their skit for Homecoming's competition.

Sometimes after a great meal, all Matt Rust can do is sit back and enjoy the moment in MHS's finest eatery.

If Anyone Asks . . .

Menomonie students are quick to respond when asked most any question whether it deals with the most popular song or how they get to school. This sort of information may seem of little interest now but in twenty years when cars are outlawed, it might be interesting to have proof that students did in fact, at one time, drive themselves to school. The names of songs may drift into infinity, the musical groups mentioned might be answered with "Who was that?" Television shows come and go as do the viewing habits. The one survey that may hold its significance the longest may well be the one dealing with the school activities that students most often attend. Will the percentages change? Will basketball replace football as the number one spectator sport? Only time will tell but in twenty years our guess is that students will still be attending school-related activities in record numbers. Some things never change.

After Hours

Remember When

We were Freshmen?!?!
We were all prepared for the first day of school ...

feeling anxious, nervous, excited ... having your clothes picked out for the first day of school about five days ahead of time ... color coordinated folders and notebooks ... knowing at least one person in every class to sit next to???

Most of all, ... thinking about four long years ahead.

Remember when we were Sophomores?

Wanting to know who got their license ... and who failed their test ... saving enough $$$ to buy your first car ... being able to pick on Freshmen ... dissecting in Biology???

Remember when we were Juniors?

Chemistry and Puhl's famous fudge factor ... literature
... getting on Varsity ... Prom ... finding a date for Prom ... Queen Amy and King Don ... being able to pick on Freshmen.

Remember at the beginning of our Senior year?

Thoughts of Graduation ... ACT's ... SAT's ... colleges ... applications ... grades ... Homecoming ...
Queen Karen ... President Larkin ... jobs ... term papers and Lucille ... picking on Freshmen??? The last year ... already???

You'll always remember ...

lockers that never open ...

little yellow passes ...

narrow halls ...

detention ...

pencil sharpeners that chew ...

crowded lunch tables ...

the new friends you've made ...

the friend you said goodbye to ...

the teachers you've learned from ...

Graduation will soon be here, the feeling of accomplishment, and of being proud of what you've accomplished.
One night to share all the laughter and tears, to hug one another, say goodbyes, and promises to see each other in five or ten years. A chance to cherish what has been, and remember the best years of your life. A special time to remember when ...

you are quite a person! I'm going to cry so hard at graduation! We're losing the best class I've known and I'm going to miss you all very much! Keep up the singing because you're an expert at it! Nice 5!! Have a great life!

OTHERWISE I NEVER REALLY KNEW YOU! AND, YOU ARE ONE OF THE MOST HUMOROUS PEOPLE I KNOW. I NEVER WOULD'VE SURVIVED UP W/OUT YOU & TESSY. YOU ARE VERY TALENTED AT DANCING, (LIP-SYNCHING), AND YOU ARE BRAVE FOR GETTING UP IN FRONT OF ALL THOSE PEOPLE. I REALLY ADMIRE THAT. YOU WERE THE BEST IN OUR
WE ARE THE WORLD" SKIT-- YOU WERE THE SKIT! ANYWAY, YOU ARE A REALLY, NICE, FUNNY, & SMART PERSON. TAKE CARE NEXT YEAR & HAVE A GREAT SUMMER!

LOVE—
Robin

Dana,

Hey Babe, Boy I'm sure glad I got to know ya because your pretty wild! Word Processing has been a big bore! I mean the worst! It sucked big time. Well I'm back I just got back my packet II. 29 out of 50 all that work for 29 pts.
See ya I think I'm sick!
Good luck in the future

Love ya
Dana

!! awesome stay to me
Sometime !!

Dana-

Hey chick! Well, ya scared? Good luck to ya chicky! Boy, your ~~picture~~ all over this yearbook!
you spaz! It was great ^{oops} getting to know ya in W.P. Try not being so mean to your teachers in college pure so funny. And such a sweet heart. I could sit here and say I'll miss ya next year, but I won't say it because I'm leaving this summer too it's gonna be hard. I'm sure you'll do great in college. Become an awesome Basketball player, then I'll watch ya on T.V and say "hey, that's that mild chick from W.P. class!" You know you really shouldn't be so mean. We'll have to get together w/ Beth and have an awesome party. PARTY TIME!

Take care of yourself! Stay sweet bud!!

Take'er easy on all those men!!!

BLOB!

Dana,

You are such a funny girl!! Although we don't know each other really well (After all, I've only been here for a short while) I think you're a really nice person. The 'Jackson Five' number you did was excellent - talented as well, eh? I'm glad that you were sitting beside me in the auditorium or I would never have experienced your 'magnetic personality'! You really are hilarious (and I mean that in a good sense!). I hope I see you at graduation (hopefully we'll be standing beside each other, being 'A's', you know) and maybe afterwards. Good luck in the future - If I give you my address, perhaps you could 'drop me a line' sometime.

Well, Bye for now,

Love Moira Addison. (Scottish Exchange Student) '87.

on the 30th

FIRST OF ALL, YOU SHOULD FEEL VERY HONORED THAT I WOULD ACTUALLY SIGN YOUR YEARBOOK. I MEAN, REALLY. THIS IS QUITE A PRIVILEGE FOR YOU. BUT I CAN MAKE AN EXCEPTION FOR YOU SINCE YOU'RE SUCH A DYKE! I'M SURE THO, WHERE DO I START? THERE ARE SO MANY GREAT MEMORIES THAT I'LL NEVER FORGET. IF IT WERENT FOR B-BALL CAMP, WE PROBABLY WOULDN'T BE AS CLOSE AS FRIENDS AS WE ARE NOW. I KNEW I SHOULDN'T HAVE GONE! JUST KIDDING! THAT CAMP WOULD'VE TOTALLY SUCKED HAD IT NOT BEEN FOR WHITEHALL. BUT THAT WAS A TOUGH WEEK. I DIDN'T KNOW I HAD SOME OF THOSE MUSCLES UNTIL THAT CAMP BECUZ MY WHOLE BODY ACHED! THAT WAS THE WORST. THAT WAS ALSO THE BEST SUMMER. I CAN'T BELIEVE ALL THE B-BALL WE PLAYED. THE LEAGUE GAMES WERE A JOKE, BUT THOSE 3-ON-3 TOURNAMENTS WERE FUN UNTIL YOU HURT YOUR ANKLE. YOU ARE SUCH A PUSS! THAT SUMMER WOULDN'T HAVE BEEN THE SAME W/O WHITEHALL EITHER! I AM GLAD THAT WE MET THEM AND THAT WE ALL BECAME FRIENDS. WHEN I THINK OF LAST SUMMER, I REMEMBER THINGS LIKE; PLAYING B-BALL FOR 10 MIN. MAX. AND THEN GETTING AN ICE CREAM CONE AT D.Q., ALL OUR TRIPS TO WHITEHALL, THE TIME JUDD WAS OUT-OF-TOWN, MAKING TACOS, THE ♡ CAKE, "THE GLORY OF LOVE", CHAD'S CYCLE, AND OF COURSE ALL THE LITTLE DRIVES AROUND TOWN WHEN WE HAD NOTHING BETTER TO DO. BUT THIS SENIOR YEAR HAS BEEN THE ABSOLUTE BEST BECAUSE WE HAVE DONE SO MANY CRAZY AND STUPID THINGS TOGETHER. WE SURE DID A LOT OF R.T.ING TO LAX FOR FOOTBALL AND BASKETBALL GAMES. YOU'RE THE ONLY ONE I EVER TRUSTED TO DRIVE THE BLAZER. WHY? I DON'T KNOW BUT IF I TOLD BIG LOU, HE'D PROBABLY KILL ME. I THINK I KNOW BETTER THAN TO LET YOU DRIVE ON THE TRAIL BY RIVER HEIGHTS. AFTER ALL, YOU ALMOST HIT A GARBAGE CAN. THAT WAS SO SCARY, NOT TO MENTION THE TREE YOU RAN OVER ON THAT OTHER TRAIL, WHICH DID BREAK THE FOG LIGHT AND HAD TO BE REPLACED. (FIVE-FINGER DISCOUNT!!) I THINK THE BOAT IS MORE FUN! IT REALLY GLIDES OVER DEER'S HEADS GOOD! YUCK! RIGHT NOW I AM THINKING OF BASKETBALL. IT'S TOO BAD WE HAD SUCH A DCO-DAH FOR A COACH! BUT AT LEAST WE MET LISA. WHERE WOULD BE W/O HER?! GOD, I NEVER WOULD HAVE MADE IT THROUGH THE SEASON W/O YOU. EVEN THO IT SUCKED, IT WAS FUNNY. TO THINK HE ALMOST SUSPENDED US FOR SWEARING. GOOD ONE, PAT! (FISHY, FISHY IN THE BROOK, WONT YOU COME AND BITE MY HOOK!) THOSE WERE THE BEST. GROSS, TOO! BUT, EATING OUT ALL THE TIME BEFORE GAME WAS FUN. HONESTLY, OUR TEAM SUCKED AND YOU AND I WERE THE ONLY ONES WHO REALLY KNEW THAT. LIKE, WE CAN REALLY BEAT DURAND! WHAT A JOKE!!! PAGE III. LIKE IT WAS ALMOST CLOSE. NOT THAT I MEAN TO BRAG, WELL, MAYBE A LITTLE, BUT IF WE HADN'T PLAYED SO MUCH BALL THIS SUMMER OR GONE TO CAMP, I WOULDN'T HAVE BEEN GOOD ENOUGH TO BE NAMED THE UH, YOU KNOW, PLAYER OF THE YEAR! OH, WHAT CAN I SAY? SO, THANKX. OVERALL, B-BALL SUCKED! (AND THEY'LL BE WORSE NEXT YEAR!) I'LL NEVER FORGET HALLOWEEN WHEN WE WENT TO THE HAUNTED HOUSE W/ WIK AND DONNA. THAT WAS A LOT OF FUN. OR THE CORN FEST?! AND THEN THERE WERE THE SATURDAY MORNINGS WHEN WE HAD TO GET UP AND REF THOSE DUMB ELEMENTARY GAMES. THEY WERE SO FUNNY! WE LET SO MUCH STUFF GO, BUT MR. MILLER JUST GOT A LITTLE TOO IRRATE! BUT, ONE THING I WILL NEVER EVER FORGET, AS LONG AS I LIVE... IS YOUR 18TH BIRTHDAY!!! THAT WAS THE NIGHT I BECAME A JUVINILE DELINQUENT! GOD, I CAN'T BELIEVE I REALLY GOT BUSTED FOR GOING INTO THE TAP! I AM GLAD WE CAN LAUGH ABOUT THAT WAS SO WEIRD. "LET'S GO TO THE TAP, EVERYBODY!" OH MY... WHAT A NIGHT THAT WAS, BUT IT WASN'T WORTH NO $50 FINE AND 12 HOURS COMMUNITY SERVICE! I HOPE YOU HAD A GREAT BIRTHDAY. BUT SERIOUSLY DANA, I TREASURE OUR FRIENDSHIP A LOT AND I CHERISH ALL TIMES WE'VE HAD AND HAVE BEEN TOGETHER. THIS IS SOMETHING I COULD NEVER TELL YOU FACE-TO-FACE BECAUSE WE ARE NEVER THAT SERIOUS. WE'D PROBABLY START LAUGHING ANYWAY! BUT YOU'VE BEEN ONE OF THE BEST FRIENDS I HAVE EVER HAD. W/ NO ONE ELSE HAVE I EVER HAD SO MUCH FUN W/ AND SO MANY MEMORIES TO REMEMBER IN ONE YEAR THAN YOU. YOU'VE ALWAYS BEEN THERE FOR ME AND I APPRECIATE THAT. YOU'VE ALWAYS BEEN A TRUE FRIEND AND I AM GLAD WE'VE BECOME SO CLOSE THROUGHOUT THIS PAST YEAR. YOU MEAN A LOT TO ME AND I KNOW WE'LL ALWAYS BE THE VERY BEST OF FRIENDS FOR A LONG TIME. WHENEVER I HEAR "WE DON'T HAVE TO TAKE OUR CLOTHES OFF", "IN TOO DEEP" OR "LET'S WAIT AWHILE" I'LL ALWAYS THINK OF YOU AND HOW MUCH FUN WE'VE HAD TOGETHER. THEY SAY THE BEST IS YET TO COME AND SO THIS SUMMER WILL BE GREAT! COME NEXT FALL, I'LL BE IN LAX, WHILE YOU'RE AT STOUT (THE E-Z WAY OUT!) BUT WE WILL STILL BE THE BEST OF FRIENDS AND KEEP IN TOUCH. JUST REMEMBER, "NEVER SAY GOOD-BYE". I WISH YOU THE BEST OF LUCK AND I HOPE ALL YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE. YOU DESERVE THE BEST OUT OF LIFE. TAKE CARE, DYKE. WE'LL ALWAYS STAY IN TOUCH AND YOU COME ↓ TO LAX... THAT WILL BE GREAT. GOODLUCK. P. 98

FRIENDS ALWAYS. AND I'LL MISS YOU!! (DWEEB!!!)

LOVE, 'LENNY DYKSTRA' hns

Dana -

I really don't have much to say to you! Just kidding of course. Just think, if we wouldn't have moved here you would never have met such wonderful people as my brother + I!!
I remember last year ^(about Prom time) when Mike always talked about you, but never did anymore about it. Good thing he came to his senses this year. It must be that you mature when you become seniors! Right. It's going to be weird not having you + Mike (especially) around the house as often. But you'll come visit me - won't you! Dana, you are one (you are) the sweetest person I have ever meet. (+ yes, I have meet alot of people!)
Thanks for everything, you are considered my sister. I've always wanted a sister like you, and now it feels like I have one. You had best take good care of my brother + yourself while you're in "COLLEGE" I know my brother cares alot about you + I have a feeling you feel the same. It's not many guys my brother talks about like he does you. Like Mike said you have alot going for you, as long as you try to fulfill it. Just remember though if you become a famous singer - you had better invite to your house so I can get introduced to some "GORGEOUS" GUYS!!
Take Care + Please Keep in touch!

Love ya
lots, (your sis!)

time of you and one of the greatest women that you are one I miss you a lot to room the earth and I be careful and take good care of yourself ~~and~~, be careful and have a good time! 0-0-y-b-f-f-A-E, Katie that are
S. you're smart funny and pleasant all at the same time - and I know that... is some dg will meet again. (This song make a deep impression on me.)

DANA,

Well sugar I'm not all that sure where I should start. I guess I'll start by thanking you for all you've done for me. When I first moved here, I wasn't sure what to suspect. I was hoping things in my life would change and it was hoping to find a beautiful girl who would give a shit. Well I found both of these things!!! Thanks for making my senior year one I'll remember always. You realize the past 7 months have been terrific and I've grown to care about you an awful lot. I really don't know what the future brings for us, but I want to say this. You will always, and I mean always, be a special person to me. I want you to know that I get this feeling that you'll always have a special place in my heart. Maybe will last another week, a month, or even longer, but no matter how long we stay together this is one special relationship. Do me one favor, and that is, throughout your whole entire life, keep striving to be the best, always ~~reaching~~ for your dreams. Don't ever lose confidence in yourself, because there is such great potential inside that person. If you ever do start to lose confidence or are feeling a little down, just pull out this year book and read over this. Let it bring the memories and remember that somewhere out there, someone (me) cares about you and has confidence in you. Do with your life what you want, Dana, because you'll regret not ever trying. Hell, who knows, someday you may be a ~~flame~~ famous singer or something. You'll never know if you don't try or if don't accept changes. Take it from someone with experience in the matter, changes are wonderful. If my life had been the same old boring thing, I never would have met you. And for that I'm thankful!!!!

Love always,

Mike

DANA,
IT'S BEEN REM.
ALL THE SHIT I PUT UP WITH FROM YOU. JUST
KIDDING. YOU'RE A REM SWEET GIRL. STAY THAT WAY. NOPE TO SEE YOU AROUND THIS SUMMER.
BEST WISHES,
RICK

Dana-
I sat by you for nearly a semester^(in choir) without knowing how nice you were. You are a fantastic "Michael" - maybe you should take it on "Puttin' on the Hits!" I really admire your ability to make people smile and laugh like crazy. You're just too sweet - have you ever gotten mad at anyone? I hope that you see a whole lot of success. (sappy, eh?) But you really are one of the nicest people I know and you deserve nothing but the very best! Take care and God Bless!
Love, Jill Opseth

Dana-
Econ has been one huge headache!!
Glad that it's almost over. I wish that I would have moved back here earlier cause it's been fun. The party Sunday was titts and I'm still feeling it... lol. Can't wait for the next one!! Well we have made it through menomonic high... finally, didn't think I'd ever see the day I would graduate instead of everybody else. I wish you all the best in the future and maybe I'll see ya around this summer. Take care,

DANA,

Hey, I Really Never Knew You That Well until this year, and Boy am I happy that was true. (Fock that makes No Sense, But fock it.)
I'll forgive you for Not taking me to get me My "Cigs." I tell ya, You're a hell of a lot Nicer than Theresa Stai. I'll Bet you're Going to Be the Popular Chick on Campus. Good Luck to what ever you Do.

Love you

DANA - WE SURE HAVE HAD SOME GREAT TIMES. I KNOW YOU'LL WANT TO PLAY THAT GAME "HA" ALL THE TIME NOW!! Basketball had it's high points and low points. But it would never have been AS FUN WITHOUT YOU THERE!! You've got a great sense of humor DON'T EVER LOSE
THAT or your M. J MOVES. YOU ARE SO GOOD AT THAT! I'LL NEVER FORGET THAT NIGHT BEFORE THAT B.B. GAME UP IN MY ROOM.
NEXT TIME I'LL HAVE TO GET WHAT YOU LIKE!! ANDE, I WANT TO WISH YOU THE BEST OF LUCK in THE FUTURE!!
HAVE A GREAT TIME IN COLLEGE.

Good, Joyer
